AUTONOMOUS RULE IN PROVINCES OF INDIA INAUGURATED TODAY

Eleven Included in Great British Experiment in Constitutional Evolution—Nationalists Refuse To Form Ministries in Six—Congress Party Calls for Work Stoppage as Protest

BOMBAY, March 31 (P).—The eleven provinces of British India inaugurate autonomous government tomorrow in the first step of what is perhaps the British Empire's greatest experiment in constitutional evolution.

In six of the provinces, however, the march toward self-government was clouded by refusal of the Nationalist Congress Party, successful in those provinces in the recent elections, to form ministries.

CONTINGENCY MET

The new constitution, embodied in the Government of India Act passed by the British Parliament two years ago, provides for just such a contingency by providing the provincial governors shall have special "safeguarding" powers, enabling them to carry on government.

As the Congress party persists in its refusal to take office, minority administrations have been formed in four of the six provinces.

It is to these special powers vested in the provincial governors that the Congress party is objecting. They have demanded that the governors renounce these powers and promise to accept the advice of their ministers regardless of its nature.

This the governors say they are

REGRETS DELAY OVER AIRWAYS

Opposition Leader Again Voices Protest—Minister Answers Criticism

OTTAWA, March 31 (P).—Protest came from Conservative leader R. B. Bennett today at the delay in bringing down legislation for creation of a trans-Canada Airways Corporation.

While he would not ask that the bill be held over until next session, he said it was regrettable there was not time to have the measure given a public hearing before a House committee.

Mr. Bennett also urged again that, since the Federal treasury was initially financing the project, it should be entirely public-owned.

Transport Minister C. D. Howe, piloting the measure through committee of the whole, doubted if any good purpose would be served by a public hearing. Nor could the bill be delayed another year.

FOUND DEAD IN ROOM AT BATHS

Frank A. Wallace Believed to Have Succumbed to Natural Causes—Scorched by Heat

VANCOUVER, March 31 (P).—Scorched by the heat, the body of a man identified as Frank A. Wallace, believed to be a former resident of Nelson, was found tonight in the private room of a Vancouver steam-bath establishment. Death was believed due to natural causes.

When he failed to move after spending several hours in the room he had rented earlier, the proprietor entered and found the body sprawled on the floor. The "dry heat" was turned on and had blistered the skin of the body.

Police expressed the belief that Wallace had turned on the "dry heat" and had collapsed before he could turn it off.

VICTIMIZED IN BIG FRAUD

Fernie Merchant Tells Court Of Losing $60,000 in Bunco Game

VANCOUVER, March 31 (P).—Joseph Aiello, Fernie, B.C., dry goods merchant, told Judge Lennox in County Court today, how he had lost $60,000 to an alleged confidence man who struck up an acquaintance with him on the pretence of having a buyer for his Fernie business.

Don Eiding, sixty-five-year-old former horse dealer of Prince Albert, Sask., charged with defrauding Aiello, was identified by the Fernie merchant as the man he was introduced to as Bradley. The introduction was made by a man named Wilson, who had previously said he had a buyer for Aiello's store.

FIND FAT WALLET

Aiello said he came to Vancouver at the request of Bradley, only to find him gone. He was met by Wilson. Together they found a wallet containing $75 cash and a $100,000 bond in the name of J. M. Manning, of Vancouver.

Returning the wallet to Manning, the latter placed a racehorse bet for them with the $75, which returned $750. Another bet was made, Aiello said, this returning $12,000.

The Fernie merchant testified Manning then proposed another bet, suggesting $200,000, and evidence showed Manning gave Wilson his note for that amount.

CHANGES MADE IN DUTY RATES

Levy on Furniture Raised On Recommendation of Tariff Board

OTTAWA, March 31 (P).—Reduced tariffs on several items in the automotive schedules, higher imposts on furniture and lower rates on certain types of hats today were announced by Finance Minister Charles Dunning. The announcement was made in the votes and proceedings of Commons and the changes will be retroactive to February 25, the date the budget was brought down.

The changes were based on recommendations made to the minister by the Tariff Board.

The board recommended the rate against United States furniture and from other countries under the intermediate tariff be increased from 30, 35, 40, to 37 1/2 per cent, less 10 per cent, or a net protection of 33 1/2 per cent.

TWO-YEAR TRIAL

The board's report suggested the increase be considered only as temporary to enable the furniture industry to get on its feet and should be subject to review in two years.

Reduction in the automotive schedules was chiefly to make it cheaper to import parts used in the manufacture of cars, trucks and buses. One of the important changes was to allow in, free, steel used in the manufacture of cars when of a class or kind not produced in Canada. It will come in free both from Great Britain and the United States. Formerly the tariff was as high as $4 a ton against Britain and $8 a ton against United States.

Reductions were announced in specific duties on fur felt and wool hats and shapies.

Numerous Fist Fights Break Out Between Warring Union Men

SEATTLE, March 31 (P).—Reporters were ordered out of the Labor Temple here tonight during a Central Labor Council session at which, police said, numerous fist fights broke out in corridors and stairways. One person was injured. The fighting apparently was over the current Newsboys' Union war, in which a "rank and file" faction was restrained by a court order from picketing newsstands.

Before reporters left, they said, the meeting was in an uproar, with members of the Maritime Federation charging that teamsters were using "beef squad" tactics. Charges and counter-charges and the free use of the word "liar" were shouted across the meeting hall. Police squad cars were summoned to the hall.

Explains His Ideas For Naval Defence Before the Senate

Liberal Member of Upper House Advocates Betterment of Condition of Canadian Fishermen And Their Training for Naval Service

OTTAWA, March 31 (P).—Senator William Duff, the "admiral on the hill," today laid before the Upper House a seven-phase programme for promoting coastal defence through a naval reserve composed of fishermen.

B.C. MINING DIVIDENDS UP

Dividends Paid in 1936 Close to $10,000,000—Production Steady

Mining dividends paid in British Columbia last year were close to $10,000,000, exclusive of cash disbursements at one of the larger properties, and exclusive also of Howe Sound, Dr. J. F. Walker, deputy minister of mines for the Province indicated yesterday.

At that level the dividends paid on British Columbia properties exceeded by $2,000,000 the previous estimated figure for the year and were twice as great as in the year previous.

PRODUCTION STEADY

Though no exact figures are kept on metal and mineral production in the first quarter of the year, the department believes that base and precious metal production between January and March inclusively this year was fully up to expectations.

For the present year as a whole, gold and lead are in a race for top place in production values, and both outputs will be greater than in 1936.

Speaking on the Mainland last week, Hon. G. S. Pearson estimated 1937 mining production from all sources at $62,000,000, if the present rate of production be maintained.

FUNERAL INTERRUPTED BY TRIPLE TRAGEDY

GRENOBLE, France, March 31 (CP-Havas).—A funeral in the little Provencal town of Valensole, near here, was interrupted at the cemetery gates today by a double murder and a suicide. The deceased hatred of a local poacher for the gendarmes was the cause.

Heavy Penalties to Be Imposed for Infraction of Proposed Legislation

WIDE POWER GIVEN GOVERNOR-IN-COUNCIL

OTTAWA, March 31 (P).—The Dominion Government moved today to take full control over the manufacture, import and export of arms, ammunition and war materials. In the House of Commons Hon. J. L. Halsey, Minister of National Revenue, introduced a bill to amend the Customs Act, which, when effective, will clothe the Governor-in-Council with wide powers over every type of traffic in implements and materials of war.

The provision is contained in a new section 280 replacing the former section which dealt with the same subject in a general way. The new section specifically authorizes the Government to:

STRINGENT REGULATIONS

Require permits for exporters or transporters of such materials and prescribe fees, regulations and conditions under which permits may be obtained.

EXAMINATIONS TO BE LIMITED

Only Students Failing to Win Recommendations to Write Matriculation Tests

VANCOUVER, March 31 (P).—A new system of promotion for British Columbia students between high school and university will be put into effect in the near future. It was announced today by Henry Charlesworth, secretary of the British Columbia Teachers' Federation, in a speech before the federation's eighteenth annual convention.

Under the new system, Mr. Charlesworth said, instead of the usual matriculation examinations for admission to university, students will be judged by teachers and principals on their work during the year. Matriculation examinations may still be held, he said, but will be only for students who have not been recommended for their high school graduation diplomas.

The association secretary said the proposal had been considered for some time by a joint committee of four representatives of the senate and of the University of British Columbia and three from the British Columbia Teachers' Federation.

The new system will come into effect when the new curriculum is introduced, probably this fall, according to the association secretary.

GREAT BRITAIN ENDS YEAR WITH DEFICIT

LONDON, March 31 (P).—Britain ended its fiscal year today with a deficit of $5,597,000 ($27,985,000), it was announced in the official Treasury return. Surplus of ordinary revenue over ordinary expenditure was $7,330,000, which was converted into a deficit by the payment of $13,127,000 into a new sinking fund for debt redemption.

Total revenue was $797,289,000, while total expenditure, including the sinking fund payment, was $802,886,000.

Progress Fast In Drive on Capital Of Fascist Rule

Pilgrims' Shrine For Six Centuries Destroyed by Fire

MAINZ, Germany, March 31 (CP-Havas).—The Franciscan monastery at near-by Marienthal, for 600 years a pilgrims' shrine, was razed by fire today. The monastery's library, rich in precious manuscripts, was gutted.

Determined To Remove Opposition

MOSCOW, April 1 (P).—Joseph Stalin's demand for "merciless" extermination of all Bolshevik enemies was served on the nation early today. He made the demand in a speech, published this morning, delivered March 5 in the Kremlin at the closing session of a plenum of the central committee of the Communist Party.

Observers regarded the speech as of greatest significance because, they said, the secretary of the central committee made perfectly clear that after a decade of struggling with "Trotskyism" he now was determined to wipe out completely all Soviet opposition.

NAVAL PATROL NOW IN EFFECT

Dutch Ships Join French and British Squadrons in Waters Off Spain

LONDON, March 31 (P).—British, French and Dutch warships patrolled waters off embroiled Spain tonight under instructions to protect their merchant shipping against interference or seizure by Spanish insurgent vessels.

Aroused by the stoppage and attacks on steamers, France joined Great Britain in warning the insurgents to keep their hands off ships carrying cargo not banned by the non-intervention agreement, which prohibits sending arms and men to Spain.

An additional group of Dutch warships arrived off Spain and took up their patrol.

WARSHIP ESCORTS STEAMER

Great Britain lost no time in making good her declaration her merchantmen would be protected. The destroyer Gipsy went into action today by escorting the British steamer Thorephall to Bilbao, Spain, from Gibraltar.

The Thorephall was en route to Bilbao yesterday when she was ordered to halt by an insurgent gunboat in the Straits of Gibraltar. Instead, the steamer made a run for it and put into Gibraltar for protection.

TRAIN WRECK IN FRANCE

DAX, France, March 31 (CP-Havas).—One person was killed last night and another seriously injured when the last four cars of the Bordeaux-Hendaye Express jumped the rails at Cabannes, near here. Forty-four passengers were slightly injured.

Several Towns Captured in Fourteen-Mile Push of Victorious Spanish Government Troops—Insurgents' Retreat Continues on Southern Front—Troop Train Abandoned

Scores Perish in Churches, Victims of Insurgent Bombs

MADRID, March 31 (P).—The Madrid-Valencia Government tonight claimed rapid progress in a drive on the original seat of the insurgent regime, Burgos; a railroad town capitulated to the follow-up thrust of victorious Government troops on the southern front; insurgent planes rained death on morning worshippers in Durango. These things and others made up another day of war in Spain.

The Government drive on Burgos, which preceded Salamanca as the general headquarters of Gen. Francisco Franco, brought capture of several towns, including Sargentes, half way between Santander and Burgos. Fourteen miles were covered in the push.

RETREAT CONTINUES

The precipitate retreat of insurgents on the southern or Cordoba Province front continued along a railroad connecting the Government-held mining area near Pozoblanco with Penarroya. Insurgents abandoned a troop train in the station at El Soldado before the Government troops crashed through. It was under full steam and contained a large stock of war material, including 300 rifles and dozens of machine guns. The bodies of 175 insurgents were strewn along the line of march into El Soldado.

MAY MOVE FOR DISARMAMENT

Arrival of U.S. Ambassador-at-Large in London Gives Rise to Speculation

LONDON, March 31 (P).—As Norman H. Davis, United States Ambassador-at-Large, reached London today, there were authoritative indications President Roosevelt may employ him to feel out the possibilities of a new move toward disarmament.

Although Davis' immediate mission is to head the United States delegation at the international disarmament conference, the British press emphasized significance of his arrival in connection with larger questions of world peace and economic co-operation.

A member of Mr. Davis' suite said some of the newspapers' conjectures were "not far fetched."

BASIC POINTS OF POLICY

An authoritative source said the ambassador may in talks with statesmen, find time to re-emphasize the three basic points of United States foreign policy, peace, disarmament and international economic co-operation.

While in London it is known Davis intends to confer with Ramsay MacDonald, Lord President of the Council and former Prime Minister; Walter Runciman, president of the Board of Trade, who recently visited Washington and talked with the President, and William Ormsby-Gore, Secretary for the Colonies.

An American traveling with the ambassador said Davis would "take up where Mr. Runciman left off in Washington"—that is, would resume Anglo-American talks looking toward reciprocal lowering of tariffs.

PRINCE HAS TO HASTEN JOURNEY

Visits to Toronto and Niagara Are Eliminated From Schedule—Travel Via Port Arthur

ABOARD SPECIAL TRAIN WITH PRINCE CHICHIBU, March 31 (P).—Prince Chichibu and his Princess will not call at Toronto en route to Ottawa, it was announced today while the Imperial Japanese party speeded out of the Rocky Mountains. Owing to the delay in arrival of the motorship Helan Maru at Vancouver on Tuesday, it was decided to proceed to the Canadian capital via North Bay, thus cutting out both the Toronto and Niagara Falls visits.

In order to maintain the original schedule of arrival at Ottawa on Saturday, however, the train will go east from Winnipeg via Port Arthur, where the Imperial party will see the machinery at the lakehead for the handling of Western grain.

Concentrated Effort To Secure Air Field For City to Be Made

Public Works Committee Confers With Chamber of Commerce Aviation Group—Agricultural Association Seeks Sinking Fund Delay

CONCENTRATED effort to secure establishment of an airport, or at least an emergency landing field by the Federal Government, was decided upon by the City Council public works committee during a conference with members of the Chamber of Commerce aviation committee yesterday afternoon. It was agreed to recommend to the council next Monday evening that the business and trade development group work in close harmony with the Chamber of Commerce to again place the city on the air map of Canada. Mayor Andrew McGavin presided.

Present from the Chamber of Commerce were Duncan MacBride, C. H. O'Halloran, K.C., and R. H. B. Ker.

Mr. Ker outlined possible locations for an airport here, including property at Gordon Head once considered by the city when use of Lansdowne Road field was prohibited by the Federal Government. In the event of Vancouver being constituted the terminus of the trans-Canada air route, Mr. Ker believed an emergency landing field here would be an absolute necessity.

In speaking along similar lines, Mr. O'Halloran urged the committee to act without delay in efforts to secure an airport or an emergency field here.

COMMITTEE AGREES

In agreeing with the speakers, the public works committee decided to recommend to the council that the business and trade development group, headed by Alderman Archie Wills, be asked to co-operate with the Chamber of Commerce to the fullest extent.

Commander C. H. R. Slingsby and W. H. Mearns, representing the British Columbia Agricultural Association, requested a hearing on matters affecting the association. Alderman W. T. Straith pointed out the Jules E. Fortin debt adjustment plan would give the city freedom from paying into the sinking fund for three years, and the association wished to suspend payment of its annual sinking fund of $1,291.23 to the city for a period of twelve months.

DENIES REPORTS

CASABLANCA, French Morocco, March 31 (AP).—The High Commissioner of Spanish Morocco, birthplace of the Spanish civil war, tonight flatly denied reports of an anti-insurgent plot in the insurgent-held colony.

The High Commissioner, Col. Juan Belgueder y Azena, speaking by telephone from Tetuan, also declared:

1. It is "absolutely untrue" that Italian troops have landed in Spanish Morocco.

2. Reports that Generalissimo Francisco Franco, insurgent leader, had gone from Spain to Spanish Morocco were false.

3. Travellers from Ceuta, however, described in detail how they had seen Italian troops and equipment. The belief was widely held here that a "serious" anti-insurgent movement had developed in Spanish Morocco and that Italian troops might be used to maintain order.

The professor had been lecturing on mining engineering, and when he had finished he asked: "Would anyone like to ask any questions?" "How," said the bright student, "do you calculate the horsepower of a donkey-engine?"

EXPLAINS HIS IDEAS FOR NAVAL DEFENCE

The more immediate step was establishment of a Canadian naval reserve from Canadian fishermen, who could follow their vocation six months of the year and train for naval service the remaining six months, he submitted.

Parliament should take immediate action to provide $5,000,000 for betterment of the fishing industry in the interests of the whole of Canada and her economic well-being, he urged. Senator Duff proposed that under a $5,000,000 appropriation the measure would be enabled:

LOANS FOR EQUIPMENT

1. Loans to fishermen, so that they may build boats suitable for shore fishing, or vessels sufficiently large for deep-sea fishing, and that fishermen may purchase engines or equipment and gear on loans to be secured to the Government by mortgage on the boats and by marine insurance, with the amount to be advanced to vary from a minimum of $100 to a maximum of $25,000 in each case.

2. Financial encouragement by way of outright gifts or loans to individuals or companies who will be willing to establish cold storage plants, processing and drying establishments, as well as rooms for cooling and freezing fish, with the understanding that at these points, and wherever assistance is given, the person or firm will guarantee to carry on a fish buying and selling business.

BOUNTIES ON FISH

3. Until such time as the fisheries had been rehabilitated from a severe depression setback, a bounty of $2 per quintal be paid on dry-salted fish of all kinds, $1 per hundredweight on pickled fish for export and 25c per hundredweight on fresh fish.

4. Payment of a bounty or an amount equal to $1 per hoghead on salt to be remitted to fishermen.

5. Reduction of cost of living to fishermen and cost of gear and equipment for their boats by lowering tariffs and removing restrictions on goods required by fishermen imported from countries where fishery products are now marketed.

6. That an organization of businessmen interested in the industry and fishermen be established to enlarge the home and foreign markets.

7. That the Department of Fisheries be reorganized to increase its efficiency.

"Unless we have the men there is no use in buying ships, and if we are ever going to build up a naval defence policy we must develop a policy of providing men," Senator Duff declared.

Senator J. P. B. Casgrain (Liberal, Montreal), believed a naval department should be attached to the Royal Military College at Kingston. He agreed Canadian fishermen should be trained to man Canadian ships for naval defence.

State Dinner Held in Honor Of Governor

WASHINGTON, March 31 (AP).—President and Mrs. Roosevelt entertained tonight at a state dinner honoring Their Excellencies the Governor-General of Canada and Lady Tweedsmuir.

Places for sixty were set at the long table, resplendent with the gold service acquired for the White House by President Monroe.

Members of the Canadian Governor-General's party present included Mrs. Pape, lady-in-waiting; A. S. Redfern, secretary; Colonel H. Willis O'Connor, Lieutenant S. G. Rivers-Smith and Captain C. P. Campbell-Preston, aides-de-camp.

TENDER CALL TO KAMLOOPS MAN

Oak Bay United Church Invites Rev. F. R. G. Dredge To Become Pastor

Oak Bay United Church congregation last night decided to extend a call to Rev. Frederick R. G. Dredge, M.A., minister of the United Church in Kamloops, to become pastor of the church here, in succession to Rev. Dr. Gerald B. Switzer, who recently left the Oak Bay charge to become minister of West Point Grey United Church, Vancouver.

Acceptance by Mr. Dredge of the invitation is expected, and, in that event, he will arrive in Victoria in July to assume his new pastorate.

Mr. Dredge graduated in arts at Manitoba University and secured his M.A. degree at Columbia University, New York. He received his theological training at Union Seminary, New York; United Free Church College, Glasgow, Scotland; and at Knox College, Toronto.

Community Chest Has Approval of Social Agencies

First Annual Meeting of Victoria Council of Social Agencies Hears Report on Federated Budget Plan—Executive Is Chosen

NINE social agencies of the city definitely favor the idea of a "community chest" or federated budget, and five others will probably support the idea, it was reported at the first annual meeting of the Victoria Council of Social Agencies held last night at the Y.W.C.A.

P. E. Winslow presided. Dr. H. M. Cassidy, director of social welfare for the Provincial Government, and J. H. Creighton, superintendent of welfare, told the meeting something about their respective departments. H. T. Ravenhill, chairman of the nominating committee, brought in the following nominations for the incoming executive, which were approved: P. E. Winslow, of the Friendly Help Welfare Association; Dr. H. M. Cassidy, Provincial Welfare Department; Dr. D. M. Duncan, individual member; Mrs. Roy Angus, Y.W.C.A.; Mrs. R. R. Taylor, Oak Bay Friendly Help Society; Mrs. J. W. Gibson, Local Council of Women; Mrs. J. W. Hudson, L.O.D.E.; Alder-

REPORT OF SECRETARY

Ample evidence that the Council of Social Agencies was carrying out its original purpose in organizing, viz., "to have some means whereby those organizations interested in social work could meet together and discuss their common problems," was shown in the report of the secretary, read by Mrs. Florence Muir in Mrs. Kenneth Barr's absence.

Monthly meetings had been arranged by the chairman of the programme committee, Dr. Cassidy; in November a two-day conference on social welfare was held at the Empress Hotel under the joint auspices of the Victoria Council of Social Agencies and the Canadian Welfare Council, with Charles Ernst, Washington State public welfare director, and Charlotte Whitton, Canadian Welfare Council executive director, as the two principal speakers; a committee on welfare maintenance, under the chairmanship of Dr. D. M. Duncan, consistently studying methods of financing Victoria's social agencies; a subject reviewed at the January meeting of the society in a discussion led by Dr. Duncan; and special study also given, at the request of the Friendly Help Welfare Association, of the need for day nursery care. Two committees had also been arranged, one for dealing with vocational training for young men and women, the other with collection and distribution of used clothing and household equipment.

Seventeen private agencies and a number of public departments had joined the council.

FAVOR CHEST

The following organizations, Dr. D. M. Duncan reported, in response to the questionnaire concerning federated budget or community chest, definitely favored the idea: Friendly Help Welfare Association, Citizens' Recreation Room, Y.M.C.A., Y.W.C.A., C.N.I.B., Central Exchange, Boy Scouts Association, Sunshine Inn and Esquimalt Friendly Help. To this list would probably be added the Children's Aid, the Oak Bay Friendly Help, the Victorian Order of Nurses, the Red Cross and the Women's Workroom.

The importance of getting the support of the hospitals was pointed out by Dr. Duncan. There was no intention, in any federated budget

Province Sets Barbering Rate In Trade School

HAIRCUTS, shaves and shampoos for five cents; facials for ten cents; permanent waves for fifty cents; finger waving for fifteen cents; and manicuring for fifteen cents are part of the scale of rates that British Columbia barber and hair-dressing colleges may charge demonstration customers for the purposes of pupil instruction, the Provincial Government has decreed in regulations passed under the Trades Schools Act. Instruction courses must last 1,000 hours. It is further provided. The regulations, promulgated some time ago, are now in effect.

plan, of interfering with personal service such as is rendered by auxiliaries of hospitals and similar welfare work. He moved, in closing his report, that the council should instruct the incoming executive to draft a plan for organizing the proposed budget and decide on the representation of the budget board.

PROVINCIAL WORK

The threefold concern of the Provincial Welfare Department, viz., burial of indigents, the administration of the grant for the destitute poor and sick, and the administration of the Mothers' Pensions Act, was explained by Mr. Creighton. The province last year spent $9,000 on the burial of indigents; $125,000 on the care of the destitute poor and sick; and $600,000 on mothers' pensions. The framers of the Mothers' Pensions Act had sought merely to provide mothers and their dependents with food and clothing, but the work had considerably extended beyond this through requests for help in special emergency situations, many of which arose through the increase in the cost of living. In some 350 cases mothers were receiving pensions because the husbands were totally disabled, but some of these could be made employable if they could receive the right medical care.

Dr. Cassidy spoke of the broad objective of the Provincial welfare services in British Columbia. These embraced control of tuberculosis and venereal disease, vital statistics, laboratory work, mental hospitals and psychiatric clinics, the various services already mentioned by Mr. Creighton, the child welfare branch, the two industrial schools, the home for aged men at Kamloops, and other services.

More and more the service, which in its beginnings lacked central planning, equipment, or adequate trained personnel, was being built up: scientifically organized, and methodically administered. His reference to the great progress made during the last few years, Dr. Cassidy paid special tribute to Hon. Dr. G. M. Weir, whose keen interest was largely responsible for the advances made in the knitting together of the services, and the stress placed on the preventive aspect of health work. This last was destined to prove not only more humanitarian, but more economical, as at the present time about 90 per cent of the money voted were required to maintain mental hospitals, industrial schools, and other curative institutions.

FENCE IS SOUGHT FOR CENTRAL PARK

Purchase of $85 worth of seed for Central Park and erection of a fence costing $210 will be recommended to the City Council, the parks committee decided yesterday afternoon. Alderman James Adam presided.

It was also decided to post "no trespassing" signs at Macdonald and Royal Athletic Parks in order to minimize "fence climbing" and damage to the grass by pedestrians. Erection of a fence at Stadacona Park, costing $85, will be left until after the council considers annual estimates, the committee agreed.

After hearing a report of W. H. Warren, parks superintendent, on the danger of allowing two-way traffic on the narrow road off Douglas Street over the bridge and through Beacon Hill Park, the committee decided to seek a by-law officially constituting the thoroughfare a one-way road.

R. BASSETT IS FOUND GUILTY

First of Adjudged Assize Cases Disposed of by Jury Yesterday

Ronald Bassett was found guilty by the jury which heard the evidence in the first of the series of criminal trials which opened in the Assize Court here yesterday. Mr. Justice D. A. McDonald, the presiding judge, postponed passing of sentence until the end of the Assizes.

This charge was one of three that have been preferred against the accused. It was one of gross indecency with youths and came before the Assizes from the Saanich Police Court. Five youths, varying in age from fourteen to eighteen years, testified to the crime having been perpetrated.

This was met by the accused swearing to an alibi. The evidence of the youths placed the offence at about the end of October, but the exact date would not be sworn to.

DENIED EVIDENCE

Stuart Henderson, counsel for the accused, held that the "defence was largely a denial of a lot of lying evidence of a lot of bad boys."

The evidence of the accused was that he had not been at the scene of the alleged delinquency from October 18 and certain evidence substantiating this was produced. The jury consisted of D. D. McTavish (foreman), Henry W. Fischer, Reginald C. Jury, Harold Lees, Walter P. Tilley, Bertram Drysdale, Henry R. Anstie, A. E. Appleyard, A. Hunt, Thomas J. Brunsden, Frank F. Toms and William Gardiner.

After being out about half an hour, the jury returned the verdict of guilty.

EXPEDITING TRIALS

Mr. Justice McDonald showed that he is anxious to have the cases disposed of without loss of time. On the assembling of the court yesterday morning, the Crown counsel, Carew Martin, asked that jurors be increased to the original number, which was thirty-six. With excuses on account of age, sickness and defective hearing, the number had been reduced to twenty-three.

Sheriff H. W. Goggin was instructed to increase the number and with commendable dispatch, within a short time he had the required number available.

Before adjournment last evening, the first of two similar charges laid against William J. Burnes was called and a jury empaneled for the opening of court at 10:45 o'clock this morning. The jury selected was as follows: Percy Abel (foreman), Robert M. Allan, T. W. Kerzwell, A. E. Frahnner, John Unwin, William Taylor, John Morrison, A. Danbridge, W. J. Halliday, Hugh McAlpine, H. A. Hunt and John M. Gibson.

MONTH OF MARCH WAS VERY MILD

With Easter Sunday setting a sunshine record for the year, Victorians enjoyed a March practically free from any gales and with the mean temperature two degrees above the average, according to W. A. Thorn, superintendent at the Gon. sales Observatory, Old Sol appeared for ten and a half hours on Easter Sunday.

Sunshine for the month totaled 127 hours, which was twenty-six hours below the average. Rainfall, too, was below average, with 1.34 inches falling, or 94 of an inch below average. The mean temperature for the month was 46.1 degrees. The maximum temperature was 61 on March 4, and the minimum of 30 degrees was on March 25. For the first quarter of 1937, the total precipitation was 8.89 inches, which was 91 of an inch below average. Total sunshine for the same period was 272 hours, which is forty-seven hours below the average.

POLITICS IN ALBERTA

It is the irony of fate that in the ranks of Social Crediters there should be constant bickerings and disputes, and that the doctrine as it marches on, if it marches it does, leaves a host of renegades in its wake. Even that high priest of the theory, Premier Aberhart of Alberta, is now being told by twenty-one of his legislative followers that he is not a Social Creditor, and that his budget, in conjunction with certain bills introduced in this House, is a complete denial of Social Credit. Well may Alberta's Premier say "save me from my friends!" He has announced his failure to put Social Credit into force, the admission being made, not to the Legislature, but to his Bible Institute. Now, as is customarily the case with legislators who fall in the purpose for which they are elected, a commission is to be appointed in Alberta to see what may be essayed in the matter of Social Credit.

All there is now in Alberta politics is that there is a definite rift between Mr. Aberhart and many of his immediate followers, and the gap is widening. This means that the Province is in for a period of economic and political uncertainty and the only course likely to bring about more settled conditions is a general election in which the phantasy of Social Credit suffers defeat. It is a pity, however, that Mr. Aberhart was not able to implement his pre-election promise to give largesse to the extent of $25 a month to all. He could only have done so in illegal tender, and then the experiment would have proved a failure and been dismissed from the sphere of actualities. There will always be those who think a scheme workable until it has been demonstrated to the contrary, and so, until Social Credit is really experimented with, it will have its adherents.

GOOD ENGLISH

About the time of the American Civil War national feeling between Great Britain and the United States was far from genial. The Americans had been subjected to a good deal of unfriendly criticism from several European countries, but that which came from the Mother Country was resented with peculiar bitterness. The Americans complained that in whatever respect they happened to differ from the British, in dress, in manners, in social customs, even in pronunciation and vocabulary, such differences were counted to them for unrighteousness. When one reads the international controversies of that day, as, for example, James Russell Lowell's "Condescension in Foreigners" in The Atlantic Monthly, one is apt to suspect that the Americans were suffering from what in recent years has been called an inferiority complex.

If the Americans of that day were busy defending their pronunciation of the diphthong "ou," their pronunciation of "either," or their habit of "venting their ideas through that organ by which men are led rather than leaders," they have in these latter days come out of their defensive positions and have shown a tendency to criticize other people instead. A writer who recently paid a visit to British Columbia has made an announcement concerning our manner and method of speech which is likely to occasion some surprise, and his article is printed in the same Atlantic Monthly that gave Lowell's angry protest to the world. British Columbians must digest this piece of information with as much fortitude as they can summon. The opinion of our visitor is that "most West Coast Canadians" speak with more of a twang than do the Down East Yankees!

Upon what basis of observation does our visitor found this generalization? He appears to have conversed with the pilot who guided the boat through Active Pass. He indicates the pilot's pronunciation to some extent by such spellings as "confusin'," "a-floatin'," "diff'rence," "generly" and "ain't." As the quality called "twang" cannot readily be represented in print, it will have to be imagined. The traveller reports some conversation with the "unemployed" along the Vancouver waterfront, an interview with a crook, and further talk at a paper mill up the Coast. These conversations occurred during the two days spent ashore by the visitor. The narrow range of these investigations, extending to half a dozen people at most, is hardly sufficient to warrant any sweeping generalization about the manner of speech of "most West Coast Canadians."

Undistinguishing judgments hastily arrived at by passing travellers, although they have little value in themselves, should nevertheless serve to remind us of the duty of looking well to our use of language. By all means, if we discover in ourselves any tendency to "twang," let us correct it. What is this "twang" that is thus injuriously charged to our account as users of language? Sir Toby in "Twelfth Night" speaks of a "terrible oath with a swagging accent sharply twanged off." In "Shirley," Charlotte Bronte says "I like your Southern accent. It is so pure, so soft. It has no rugged burr, no nasal twang." "Sharpness" and "nasality" are usually mentioned in the dictionary meanings of the word, which is defined as "a sharp, ringing, nasal tone."

On a subject so important one can hardly do better than consult the acknowledged authorities. What has good old Doctor Samuel Johnson to say concerning a "perfect English pronunciation"? "Sir," he remarked to Sir Alexander Macdonald, "when people watch me narrowly, and I do not watch myself, they will find me out to be of a particular county. In the same manner Dunning may be found out to be a Devonshire man. So most Scotchmen may be found out. But, Sir, little aberrations are of no disadvantage."

Boswell, in reporting this dictum of his master, adds a few very sensible comments of his own. He distinguishes between what he calls "High English," which "makes the fools who use it truly ridiculous," and "Good English," which is "plain, easy, and smooth in the mouth of an unaffected English gentleman." Boswell is of opinion that "a studied and factitious pronunciation which requires perpetual constraint is exceedingly disgusting. A small intermixture of provincial peculiarities may have an agreeable effect."

Fowler, the author of "Modern English Usage," speaking of pronunciation, says that the ambition to do better than our neighbors is, in many departments of life, a virtue, but in pronunciation it is a vice. We should, he says, be content to be like our neighbors in this respect. Who, then, is our neighbor? Not the pedant, and not the vulgar, but the general public. He illustrates his point effectively in the sentence: "Hunt has hurt his head." It is nearly as bad, he says, to sound the "h" of "has" and "his" as not to sound that of "Hunt" and "hurt" and "head."

MIDSUMMER MADNESS

The Ottawa Journal says that the "Act for the Protection of the Dionne Quintuplets," as passed by the House of Commons and sent on to the Senate, properly deserves the adjective "unique." It is not only "unique" but absolutely silly. It says that the words "quint," "quints," "quintuplets" and the French "cing jumelles" for the future shall be "trade marks and the exclusive property" of the official guardian of the Dionne babies. This means that no person in Canada except the Dionnes' official guardian may use these words in any business scheme.

Could anything be more ridiculous? There is no such word as "quint" in the sense used in the Federal legislation. "Quint" means an organ stop giving tones a fifth above those of the keys that are pressed. It means also an alto violin; viola. A third meaning is the E string of a violin, and musically it means a fifth. In piquet it is a sequence of five of the same suit, and in fencing it is the fifth parry of the eight taught in the schools. It is nothing but newspaper slang for a multiple birth of five, and an Act of Parliament cannot make it English in that sense. As to "quint," it is local English, meaning a scallop, or queen. The word "quintuplet" means five things of a kind used or occurring together, and it specifically means a compound car spring composed of five single elliptic ones acting as one. In music it is five consecutive notes to be performed in the time of six, four or three.

There is a new note of political intrusion in the attempt to put a stop to the legitimate use of words in the English language. Perhaps, however, the object is to set up a new bureau that will exercise censorship over advertising to insure that "quint" and "quintuplet" do not appear, except when the Dionne babies are being exploited, and then, to parody the silly injunction in liquor advertisements in this Province, "This advertisement is published or displayed by authority of the official guardian of the Dionne babies." It is hoped that the Senate will have more humor than the House of Commons and will save Parliament from ridicule.

A London organization called the Electrical Association of Women recently offered a prize for a name to be applied to domestic servants. The winning name was "domestician" and the consolation prize was awarded to the competitor who sent in "household assistant." Evidently the name of "servant" is resented, and possibly those in governmental employ will soon be looking for a new name. As civilization advances there is more and more hesitation about calling a spade a spade.

A PIECE IN THE PAPER

Once when a Bostonian was in a lather because of a piece in the paper, he went to Edward Everett for counsel. Should he demand an apology or file a suit for damages? Dr. Everett listened and then interrupted: "What should you do? Why, my dear sir, do nothing! Half the people who read that paper never see the article. Half of those who do see it failed to read it. Half of those who read it did not understand it. Half of those who understood it did not believe it. Half of those who believed it were people of no consequence anyway."—New York Mirror.

Note and Comment
By Sandham Graves

"If schoolmen cannot solve the problem of democracy, then the future is black," the Honorable the Provincial Secretary was reported this week as asserting before a meeting of the British Columbia Teachers' Federation, at Vancouver. Surely, however, the future is not as black as all that! Heretofore we have relied successfully on governments to solve the problem of democracy, though there have been times when even governments rested, shall it be said from these particular labors. Reference to "illiterate and ignorant" school boards by another speaker at the same meeting, was a little untimely; because, whatever their faults, school boards have up to now been part of the democratic institutions of this country. They are elected bodies. Personally, I do not believe it is the duty of schoolmen, and I honor the calling highly, to "solve the problem of democracy" at all. I think democracy will solve most of its own problems, once it has shaken off some of those dictatorial influences which would at all costs avoid reference to the people's will. Through a reasonably long and fairly active association with the public, I have learned that the people have a will of their own, and that in the long run they exercise it. Meanwhile, as long as we are to serve the cause of democracy, the less we hear about "illiterate and ignorant" school boards, the better.

Few men or women are either illiterate or ignorant with respect to what are their individual opportunities. In any democracy, the words are offensive, and point to a most undemocratic state of mind on the part of any one who will habitually use them against fellow-men and women. One has heard, indeed, of quite poor boys who have, through the sacrifice, scrimping, and devotion of their parents, risen to be even doctors of philosophy and universally respected. There is, moreover, a difference between democracy and demagoguery, which sometimes is forgotten.

Jokingly the other day this column suggested it was about time for a Ponzi to appear. The words were scarcely in ink before the police in New York arrested a thirty-five-year-old hosiery salesman who confessed to defrauding people in New England towns out of sums totaling $100,000. He waived inter-state extradition and was returned to Boston for trial. The scheme, to which he fully admitted, was simplicity in itself. He collected funds for investment in the stock market, publishing a financial paper on the side. In these pursuits, the public was promised "dividends" of 25 per cent each month. Some of the "dividends" were actually paid. Business grew amazingly. When a sufficiently large sum of new subscriptions was on hand, the hosiery salesman removed to other parts, leaving New England towns $100,000 short of hard-earned savings. In admitting the deed, the man exonerated three other persons associated with him. He stated they did not know what was going on. Now, why did the public believe that a hosiery salesman could win for them dividends of 300 per cent per annum in the stock market? Nobody knows, and nobody ever will know; but that credulity is what Ponzi, great or small, feed on, and there always will be Ponzi.

Lily Pons, the well-known opera singer, was marooned on the twelfth floor of a Detroit hotel recently during a sit-down strike. Also, it was supper time. What did the star do? Did she walk down twelve flights of stairs? She did not. Did she sit-down in response to the sit-down? She did not. She called up the assistant manager, and coaxed him to carry her up a dinner. He did. Not far away, at Pontiac, Michigan, at about the same time, a seventeen-year-old girl climbed into the automobile of her employer, and announced she would sit there until he paid her $8.50 in wages due. After a futile call for help to the neighbors, the police, and a few other destinations, her boss paid up like a man. You have simply got to hand it to the girls. They always get their man!

From Toronto the Good comes word of the last stand made by a Canadian war veteran who, heinously and illegally, wanted to smoke his pipe on Sunday. A returned soldier who was mentioned in dispatches at Vimy Ridge, Captain Archibald Pither, stepped right out and bought himself some tobacco. In so doing he transgressed the laws of Toronto the Good, and was summarised: The police court gave the gallant captain the option of paying a fine of $2, or else going to jail for twenty-four hours in expiation of his "crime"; with a few days to think over his choice. Captain Pither, however, required no days at all to think it over. He said flatly he would go to jail for three months if necessary rather than haul down his colors before any such attack. In the long run, however, a policeman had to work overtime on Sunday to catch the gallant captain; and Toronto the Good will pay $1 for his maintenance in jail for twenty-four hours. Not so good, Toronto, not so good!

APPRECIATION

Sir,—I have just been discharged from Jubilee Hospital, having been a patient for over six months.

I was knocked down by a car and badly smashed up, but through the care and loving kindness of the nurses, house doctors and the wonderful surgical treatment of Dr. Thomas Miller, I am able to walk again.

I cannot speak too highly of the kindness I received during those months.

LACK OF SITTING ROOM

Sir,—We would like to bring to your attention certain conditions prevailing in the annex at Jubilee Hospital, since we feel they should be remedied without loss of time.

We understand that most of the patients in the annex would ordinarily be cared for in the Old Men's or Old Ladies' Homes, but they require certain treatment there are given hospitalization in the annex. The greater part of these patients are able to sit up or walk around for some of the time. Signs are seen in the halls "Patients not to visit in rooms without permission." There is no sitting-room in the annex, so that patients must be restricted to their own room or ward, or stand about the halls. Visitors must be received in the case of ward patients, in full sight and hearing of other occupants, with no possible private conversation.

A little thought of the confined lives these people must lead, doomed to spin out their joyless days in hospital rooms, will show what need there is of even a small sitting-room with easy chairs, curtains and home atmosphere.

It is understood the upper floor of the annex is shortly to be fitted up for more such patients.

Surely one room can be reserved for use as a sitting-room. If hospital funds are not available some service club might be interested in providing furnishings.

We urge your consideration of a matter which affects the pleasure and comfort of many (indigent patients).

(Mrs.) CLARE MCALLISTER,
Chairman, and Four, C.C.F. Club,

FIFTY YEARS AGO TODAY

(From The Daily Colonist of April 1, 1887.)

The Messiah—There will be a full rehearsal of "The Messiah" in the theatre for the first time on Monday next. The platform that is being erected for the orchestra and chorus will be finished, and all the singers will occupy their proper positions, when the whole of the oratorio will be sung through at this rehearsal. No one will be admitted but the members of the press. As a great number of musical people from Nanaimo, Tacoma and New Westminster propose availing themselves of the low rates quoted for the round-trip trip, we would advise our city friends to remember that the sale of tickets will commence at 9 o'clock on Saturday morning at M. W. Walter's store, as there is certain to be a great rush.

Hixon Creek—James Reid, M.P., who arrived from Quebec on Wednesday night, en route for Ottawa, states that only favorable news has been received from Hixon Creek Mine. They are still sinking on an immense body of ore. The west wall of the ledge was reached on Tuesday. The ore is of the best quality and of a cross-cut to the east failed to locate the other wall, and the ore looks good the entire width.

A Large Freight—The steamer Yosemite arrived early yesterday afternoon with between four and five hundred tons of freight for this city.

Is Making Good

Remember Sid Gaunt, who just three seasons ago played in the pack for the famous Fifth Brigade senior Rugby fifteen. Well, the former Victorian, who is just twenty now, was selected to play for the English professional fifteen a fortnight ago in an international match against France at Lyons. On the same squad was none other than George Nepia, former member of the New Zealand All Blacks which played to a record crowd many seasons ago at the Willows. Nepia is getting along in years now, but he still can gain his place on "rep" squads, and why shouldn't he, for the one-time New Zealander is still one of the greatest kickers in the game. Nepia gave a sensational exhibition of kicking for points at the Willows. He dropped them over the crossbar from all angles that day, more than ten years ago, before the largest attendance in local history. It was in that match that Wally Brynjolfsson saved Victoria from a complete rout by dropping over a goal during the second half. Getting back to young Gaunt. His brother Alec, who is playing for the J.B.A.A., senior city champions, tells me that Sid is two inches over the six-foot mark and weighs the scales at 200 pounds. Sid is playing top Rugby for Rochdale along with his older brother Roy, who used to play "rep" for Victoria several years ago.—J.D.

Should Be Good

Hitting the come-back trail in fine fashion, Tim Keist, popular local boxer, gets his chance as a main event tonight at the Tillicum gymnasium when he avails himself of the services of Trueman Kennedy, Vancouver better, over the ten-round route. The melee gives every promise of being a crowd pleaser. Kennedy, with his greater experience and bouts in better company, must be given the edge, but Keist will certainly let the Mainlander know he's in a fight. We are going to pick Trueman Kennedy as the winner, but would not be surprised if the boys finished all square. . . . Julius Troll, shifty Vancouver flatfisher, and Joe "Kid" Kaiser, Victoria, will exchange wallops in the six-round semi-windup fracas. Kaiser packs the punching power, but the Mainlander is just a little smarter. Our call is Kaiser by a knockout. . . . Fred Pocock, clowning soldier fighter from Work Point Barracks, steps four rounds with Eddie Smith, Vancouver. The army boy can really toe leather and if Mr. Smith is willing to mix it will be a great scrap. . . . The card is being staged on April 1, April Fool's Day, but Matchmaker Nick Lyster, who lines up the bouts for the Tillicum Athletic Club, assures us there will be no fooling about tonight's show. The programme looks good on paper and unless we are mistaken will rate "tops" for the season.—S.T.

Horace to the Rescue

Friend Horace is a most resourceful man. Last week the family hound came to a sad and sudden end soon after bringing three tiny pups into the world. The same day Horace with tears in his eyes had drowned several kittens to keep the animal family on his country estate from eating him out of house and home. After finding it impossible to raise the pups on a bottle, Horace gently placed them beside the grieving cat whose kittens he had drowned. Before many minutes pussy adopted the pups and competently saw to their material wants. Now Horace is wondering whether the pups will grow up to meow instead of bark. . . . Henry, the banker, was admiring a model destroyer built by "Snub," the club steward. We told him about the time "Snub" discovered a mouse had built its nest in the vessel's pilot house. "What does that make 'Snub'?" asked Henry. "What he is a moustro?"

Auray says a genius is a man ahead of the times but behind in his bills. In a small Washington State town a tourist from Los Angeles strolled up to a tiny wooden building marked "Town Hall and Jail" and asked to meet the chief of police. "That's me," answered a cadaverous individual in a shabby coat. "Who are you, and I'm glad to meet you, stranger?" After mutual introductions, the tourist expressed a desire to meet the fire chief. "Wait until I change my hat. That's me, too," answered the chief.—G.B.

Tell Your Friends

It was not so long ago that I told a charming American there was red snow to be found on the Forbidden Plateau. "Really?" said she, while her eyebrows formed twin arcs of doubt. I went on to tell her of the great height of Della Falls, of shark fishing off Mistaken Island, of Nanaimo's interesting Bastion, sole relic of its kind, of the tenure of the Company of Gentlemen Adventurers Trading Into Hudson Bay on this continent, of the fine petroglyphs just outside the Upper Island city, of the interesting ghost towns to be found on the Island, of the old burial caves on Newcastle Island, of our fishing and our hunting, especially that at Brentwood, Campbell River and Comox, of the great beach and the hot springs on our West Coast, and of many other things that should interest the tourist. She doubted much of my story until I documented it by means of tourist publicity. . . . The lady in question came from a point not far off in Oregon. Probably she should have known more about British Columbia, but she did not, and in that she is very much like many another visitor from the East or from across the line. . . . Next time you write to your friends, describe this island

TORONTO WILL GIVE DEGREE FOR MUSIC

TORONTO, March 31 (C)—Canon H. J. Coady, president of the University of Toronto, yesterday announced the university senate had ratified establishment of a course in music leading to an arts degree. One third of the music course would be devoted to music study and the remainder to the study of general cultural subjects.

What Today Means

If April 1 is your birthday, the best hours for you on this date are from 8:45 to 10:45 a.m., from 1:45 to 3:45 p.m. and from 7:45 to 9:45 p.m. The danger periods are from 6:45 to 8:45 a.m., from 5:45 to 7:45 p.m. and from 9:45 to 11:45 p.m.

Varying moods may exercise a strong influence over your action, this day, so be cautious. Do not allow prejudice to warp your judgment. Intolerance is apt to be responsible for any of this day's wrongs, and those who are guilty of it are likely to pay dearly for it. Competition in all lines of trade perhaps will be unusually keen, price being the determining factor in most of the selling done this day. The truth is liable to be handled by some people in a very careless fashion, so take a good deal of what is told to you with a grain of salt. In social circles one must be exercised in making engagements and arrangements of meeting places, as well as accepting invitations, for mix-ups are likely to prove to be the rule. It will be good judgment to answer any inquiry you may receive this day, only after you have given it the amount of deliberation it might deserve, for hasty answers may involve you

HOME-COMING
GALA AFFAIR

Reception at Winnipeg for Deanna Durbin—May Come to Coast

Adding her name to the long list of celebrities to visit the Pacific Coast in recent months, will be Deanna Durbin, noted child soprano of the etherwaves, and latest comer to screenland, who will leave Philadelphia tomorrow night for Winnipeg, thence to Vancouver.

The fourteen-year-old star, traveling over Canadian Pacific Railway lines in Canada, along with her mother and Jack Sherrill, her business manager, is returning to Winnipeg to revisit her birthplace, and has arranged to spend two days with relatives there, before rushing back to Los Angeles to start work on the Universal Pictures' production, "One Hundred Men and One Girl."

Miss Durbin, whose voice along with that of Bobby Breen, the nine-year-old Toronto youth, has pinnacled Eddie Cantor's Sunday radio half-hour to a new peak this year, has been engaged in appearances with the Philadelphia Symphony Orchestra under the baton of Leopold Stokowski, who is also to be featured in the Universal film. While in the East, Deanna also made three special recordings, which are to be released shortly.

Although definite arrangements for the arrival of Deanna on the Coast are not yet completed, it is expected from the Canadian Pacific Railway's present itinerary that following her two-day visit at Winnipeg, she will continue to the Coast as far as Coquitlam, where, if train connections permit, she will disembark and hurry to New Westminster to depart for her Hollywood home.

If the present plans of Mayor F. E. Warner, Winnipeg, are carried out, Deanna's home-coming will be a gala affair, and one to linger in the youthful memories of the noted star for all time.

Crew Rescued From Foundering Vessel

Rescued in the nick of time, the crew of the ill-fated Norwegian freighter Bjerkli, were recently taken to Boston. The coast guard cutter Chelan, and four other ships, searched for the Bjerkli for more than twenty hours before finding her. The captain of the ship had taken up wireless as a hobby in his spare time, and was able to send for help when the vessel began to founder. This Soundphoto, showing the ship just before she sank, was transmitted from Boston to San Francisco over telephone wires.

Star of Holland Ending Its
Days on Coast as Victoria-
Owned Barge

With the coming of the old sailing ship Star of Holland to the Island Tug & Barge Company, Victoria, local residents interested in the story of sail and the sea will probably appreciate the references to the old ship in Basil Lubbock's book "The Down Easters." The vessel was sent in to The Colonist by Major F. V. Longstaff.

Referring to Star of Holland, ex-Zemindar, Lubbock states: "Another very superior British ship to come under the Alaska Packers' flag was Brocklebank's Zemindar, a steel full-rigger of 2,053 tons, built by Harland & Wolff in 1885.

"When the sailing ships were ousted from the Calcutta trade by steam, the Zemindar was sold to D. Cordes & Company, of Bremen, who renamed her the Otto Gildemeister. This was in 1900. In February, 1901, the ex-jute clipper was towed into San Francisco dismasted. The repairs cost sufficient money to allow of American registry, and she was bought by Hind, Rolph & Company, renamed the Homeward Bound, and was registered in San Francisco.

"For the next seven years she was sailing by Captain C. J. Thomson, having been re-rigged as a bark. Then in 1909 she came into the Alaska Packers' fleet as the Star of Holland. Since then her best sailing performance was thirty-five

SIDE OF SHIP

Local Salvage Men Did
Great Work on Italian
Motorship Feltré

Whether the bow of the Luckenbach freighter ripped the bottom of the Italian motorship Feltré for some 240 feet when they met in the Columbia River recently, or whether an anchor was the real cause of the long gash, had not been determined a few days ago. A. G. C. McDermott, of the Ocean Stevedoring Company, stated yesterday on his return to Victoria from a vacation trip to California.

On his way home, Mr. McDermott stopped over at Portland to see how A. C. Burdick and W. G. Jordan, of the Pacific Salvage Company, were getting along in their efforts to get the ship into Portland drydock.

Mr. Jordan, who is superintendent of salvaging, has accomplished an extraordinary job of salvage work. Mr. McDermott stated. The ship and its condition would have to be seen in order to get the proper appreciation of just what had been done. The tear, varying in width, had been matted with patches in twelve sections, twenty feet long and about thirty feet deep. These were fastened under the ship's bottom and well up on her sides, when pumping started. This mattress work, with the great pressure exerted against it by the river, presented plenty of problems; but the ship was successfully floated and was moved to Portland Municipal Dock, where the cargo was being removed. This was to be finished last night, and on Friday the ship is to be taken to Portland Drydock, several miles farther up the river, for docking and survey.

Mr. McDermott stated that the weather in California had been anything but pleasant during his visit south, it having been one of the wettest Winters the southern country has experienced for many years.

Time for Arrival
Of American Mail
Vessel 9 o'clock

RUNNING further behind time, it will be 9 o'clock tonight before the American Mail Line Ss. President McKinley arrives alongside Rithet Piers, inbound from Orient ports, according to a message received from the ship by W. M. Allan, local agent for the steamship company, last evening. The wireless advices stated that the McKinley would reach William Head at 8 o'clock. The liner has passengers, mails and cargo for this port.

VANCOUVER SHIPPING

VANCOUVER, March 31 (P).—The Dutch freighter Ms. Tosari, of the Silver-Java-Pacific Line, will arrive here April 2 and go into drydock at the Burrard Drydock Company's North Vancouver plant the following day for voyage overhaul, which is expected to take several days.

R.M.S. Empress of Asia will sail from Vancouver on Saturday for the Philippine Islands and the Orient with 125 passengers.

HEAD OF GRAIN
FIRM ON VISIT

James A. Richardson, Winnipeg, Spending Short Vacation in Victoria

JAMES A. RICHARDSON

James A. Richardson, Winnipeg, president of James Richardson & Sons, Limited, grain exporters, head of Canadian Airways, and prominently identified with a great many leading Canadian business concerns, has been spending a few days in Victoria with his family.

Seen yesterday by a representative of The Colonist, Mr. Richardson stated his visit to Victoria was wholly vacation and had nothing to do with business matters. He was last here in 1931, he said, and noted some changes, particularly about the Empress Hotel.

Surveying the general situation in Canada briefly, Mr. Richardson declared that both ends of the country appeared to be definitely on the way to protracted recovery, but, unfortunately, this could not be said of the Prairie sections. The Eastern provinces were forging ahead and British Columbia looked good, too. At that the grain-growing provinces may stage a comeback this very season. Subsoil moisture is lacking at present, but if real rains come in April, the Prairie farmers will be in for big things. Certain other of the great grain-growing countries have poor prospects, while former heavy buyers of Canadian wheat will be in the market again for heavy purchasing, he said. Altogether the outlook is bright. There is plenty for all Canadians to hope for, with every possibility of our wishes materializing. Mr. Richardson added. The Winnipeg grain man will leave Victoria today on his return home.

BIG CONGREGATION AT FUNERAL RITES

Impressive Services Conducted in Church for Late Hugh George McKinnon

Douglas Street Baptist Church was crowded to capacity yesterday afternoon for the funeral of Hugh George McKinnon, son of Rev. F. W. and Mrs. McKinnon, who was accidentally killed at Goldstream on Good Friday.

Impressive services were conducted by Rev. Henry Knox, Vancouver, representing the Baptist Convention of British Columbia, who was assisted by Rev. Dr. A. S. Imrie, who gave an address; Rev. G. A. Reynolds, who read the Scripture; Rev. E. F. Church, who offered prayer; Vivian Shoemaker, boys' work secretary, Y.M.C.A., who gave an address; and Rev. Dr. Clem Davies, who pronounced the benediction.

During the service, the hymns "I Shall Know Him" and "Jesus Is Our Shepherd" were sung by the congregation. The soloists were Mrs. B. C. Gillie, who sang "In the Garden," and Mrs. Robert McIntosh, who sang "Sometime We'll Understand."

A wealth of beautiful floral tributes was received.

Interment was made in Royal Oak Burial Park, with the following friends as pallbearers: Representing the Y.M.C.A., Tom Harding and Frank Leitch; the Mount View High School, Leonard Humphrey and Bruce Mickleburgh; and the Douglas Street Baptist Sunday School, Clifford Gregory and Jack Neville.

AUTONOMOUS RULE INAUGURATED TODAY

powerless to do, even if they were include the prevention of any menace to the peace and tranquility of the province, the safeguarding of minorities and members of the public services, and protection of the rights of the Indian states and the native provinces ruling them.

The Congress party has called for a hartal, or work stoppage, by its members and sympathizers for tomorrow as a protest against the inauguration of the new constitution. It is not anticipated this will hamper business to any great extent.

The authorities, however, were prepared for any disorders, and party leaders were forbidden to organize processions.

GESTURE OF DISAPPROVAL
The Calcutta Corporation, dominated by Nationalists, decided to close municipal offices and the schools as a gesture of disapproval of the new charter.

The new legislatures, elected during the past few weeks, were to take power at midnight, thereby ending the old darchical form of government in the eleven provinces. Under the old dual system, the governor administered certain "reserved subjects" which the legislature and its ministers could not touch.

Minority party ministries have been formed in all the six provinces except Assam and the United Provinces. The ministries are coalitions. In the remaining five provinces, the majority parties were willing to form administrations on the conditions embodied in the constitution.

THE KING'S MESSAGE
The viceroy, the Marquess of Linlithgow, tonight received the following message from the King-Emperor: "I cannot let the day pass without assuring my Indian subjects that my thoughts and good wishes are with them on this occasion. A new chapter is thus opening, and it is my fervent hope and prayer that the opportunities now available to them will be used wisely."

VICTIMIZED IN BIG FRAUD

Wilson then left with the $200,000, supposedly to place a bet with it, and returned later with a Mr. Conn, who explained he had $212,000 in a satchel but that they must show him they could cover the bet.

Alelio left for Fernie to raise $60,000, Manning was to find $75,000 and Wilson the rest, witness said.

The Fernie merchant said he raised close to $60,000 and returned to the coast, and was met by Wilson and Manning, to whom he gave the money.

FORTUNE IS LOST
One more bet was proposed by Manning, Alelio said. Wilson left with $200,000, and returned to announce he had put the whole sum on one race and lost it all.

Alelio said he was then given a ticket to Montreal, where Manning said he would meet him and they would recoup their losses; but on arrival in the Quebec city he received a telegram from Manning saying he had been called to Salt Lake City and had been suspended by his firm.

The case continues tomorrow.

Miss Kirchin Bride of Mr. Joseph Emery

The marriage of Iris Patricia, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Kirchin, 563 David Street, and Mr. Joseph Parnell Emery, second son of the late Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Emery, 866 Old Esquimalt Road, took place last night at 8:30 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, in the presence of relatives and a few close friends. Rev. F. W. McKinnon officiated at the service, during which the young couple stood in a bow of flowers beneath white streamers showered with violets, and a large white bell.

The bride's brother, Mr. Clarence Kirchin, played the wedding marches.

PRETTY BRIDE
Given in marriage by her father, the pretty bride looked charming in a frock of Coronation blue crepe de chene, with which she wore a corsage-bouquet of roses, freesias and violets and navy blue accessories. The senior bridesmaid, Miss Peggy Grant, wore a peasant-style frock of figured crepe on a navy ground, a corsage bouquet of roses and navy accessories, and the younger attendant, Miss Jean Fuggle, was in pink tulle, with a pink velvet bandeau in her hair, who held a Colonial posy of mixed flowers. Mr. Samuel Emery supported his brother.

Mrs. Kirchin was dressed in Alice blue, and receiving with her was the bridegroom's sister, Miss Anne Emery, who wore a smart black gown, corsage bouquets of carnations adorning both their costumes. The wedding cake centred the supper table, standing between vases of pink and white carnations. Mrs. Jack Gilliam was responsible for all the attractive decorations.

TO LIVE HERE
After a honeymoon on the Mainland, for which the bride left in a grey and blue sports coat over her wedding outfit, Mr. and Mrs. Emery will reside on Old Esquimalt Road.

Included among the many lovely gifts was a Westminster chimes clock from the pupils of the Colwood public school, of which the bridegroom is principal.

A four-piece orchestra provided the music for dancing. Vases of daffodils and plum blossom adorned the supper tables.

Mr. and Mrs. Mayhew and their daughter received the guests in the hall. Mrs. Mayhew wore a handsome wine-colored gown, and Miss Jean Mayhew was in coral tulle.

Kidney Acids Rob Your Rest

Many people never seem to get a good night's rest. They turn and toss—their heads ache, their backs ache, their legs ache, their kidneys ache. Often they blame it on "nerves" when it may be their kidneys. Healthy kidneys filter poisons from the blood. If they are faulty and fail, poisons stay in the system and sleeplessness, headache, backache often follow. If you don't try Dodd's Kidney Pills—for half a century the favorite remedy for kidney trouble.

BRAN ROLLS

DISSOLVE two cakes of yeast in one cup of lukewarm water. To one cup of all-bran add one cup of boiling milk, one cup of shortening, or shortening with butter, three-quarters of a cup of granulated sugar and one and a half teaspoons of salt. Stir the ingredients until the shortening melts. Cool to lukewarm and add the dissolved yeast and stir to combine. Beat two eggs until light, and add to the yeast mixture. Combine well. Measure six cups of sifted flour and beat into the yeast mixture with a little additional sifted flour, if necessary, to make a soft dough. Turn on to a lightly floured board and knead until smooth. Place in a greased bowl, cover, and place in the refrigerator or allow to stand overnight. To bake, pinch off in pieces about the size of a large crab apple and shape as rolls. Place one inch apart on a greased pan, and let rise about two and a half hours. Bake in a hot oven for about fifteen to eighteen minutes.

(These rolls were served at a luncheon prepared by the Household Training Class of the Y.W.C.A. and Department of Education, and were particularly delicious.—Prudence.)

What Is Correct?

Can bones be picked?

It is considered the worst kind of manners to pick up any meat (such as a chop) with the fingers and chew at it. It is also incorrect, when dining with others, to eat any part of a bird with the aid of the fingers. There is an excellent reason for this rule. To be compelled to look at someone opposite you with soiled fingers and mouth and soiled napkin is obviously very unpleasant.

How long should a man keep his hat off when talking to a woman?

A man may prefer to, but need not, keep his hat off when he is standing talking with a woman of his own age. If the woman is older, he should keep his hat off until she suggests that he put it on. She will, of course, ask him to replace it if the weather is stormy or cold.

Where does a man walk when he is with two women?

A man walking with two women should walk on the side toward the curb. He should never walk in between the two women. The curb side is supposed to be the dangerous side, and the man offers his protection by walking on that side. There is no inference of lack of attention to the one woman because the man walks beside the other.

COFFEE
FULL FLAVORED

Be considerate of your guests—serve only Full-Flavored Coffee

THE BASIS OF ALL GOOD MANNERS is consideration of others. That is why no thoughtful hostess today serves any coffee that is not deliciously full flavored.

Coffee, when it is lacking in the real coffee flavor, is a dull, dispiriting drink. It may ruin good food and banish good cheer.

Certainly no hostess would ever want to be guilty of this careless brand of hospitality. And none needs to be today. Chase & Sanborn Coffee is priced so reasonably that everyone can afford to serve it, every day and at the largest gatherings.

Chase & Sanborn is made from the world's choice coffees—skillfully selected, roasted and blended by experts. That's why it has such extra-delicious coffee flavor—Canada's favorite for more than 70 years.

To taste it, you would think Chase & Sanborn must be expensive coffee—its reasonable price is a pleasant surprise.

Serve finer, fuller flavored Chase & Sanborn Coffee and see how grateful your family and all your guests are. Order a tin of it at your grocer's tomorrow. Packed in pound and half-pound vacuum tins.

Superintendent Shows Pictures of Mission

Major Harold Brown and Rev. Alan Greene Speakers at Dinner Held After Columbia Coast Mission Annual Meeting

The increasing interest in the work of the Columbia Coast Mission was apparent last evening when 123 friends of the Mission attended a dinner in the dining-room of David Spencer, Ltd., following the annual meeting of the Mission, held during the afternoon in the Memorial Hall.

Right Rev. H. E. Sexton, Bishop of Columbia, and president of the board of directors, was in the chair. Major Harold Brown, chairman of the board of management and managing director of the Union Steamship Co., Ltd., Vancouver, was one of the special speakers. In his impressive address he paid a sincere tribute to the work being done by the newly-appointed superintendent, Rev. Alan Greene. He touched upon the work of the Mission as a whole, speaking of the element of tragedy, the humorous side, and the spiritual significance of the work. He felt that the work being done by the Mission was a definite means of welding together the people of the Coast, to whom the hand of friendship is ever extended by the "messengers of mercy," who year in

PICTURES SHOWN

A series of excellent motion pictures, depicting the social, medical and spiritual sides of the Mission, was shown by Mr. Greene, who recently returned from a lecture tour in Eastern Canada, when these pictures were shown to over 15,000 persons. Mr. Greene spoke of the work which the United Church Mission is also doing on the Coast, and of the harmony which exists between them and the Anglican workers in carrying practical Christianity and help into the lives of the people on the Coast. Mr. Greene had words of praise for the former superintendent, Rev. John Anlie, through whose endeavors the firm foundations were laid. He made a plea for continued interest and financial assistance.

VOTE OF THANKS

Sir Richard Lake moved a vote of thanks to Major Brown for his address, Colonel A. W. R. Wilby seconded the motion, and Bishop Sexton expressed the appreciation of the audience to Rev. Alan Greene for his most enlightening talk and delightfully told story of the Mission in action.

Most Rev. A. U. de Pencier, vice-president of the board of management, added a word of tribute to the Mission, and of his pride in being associated with this great enterprise.

The dinner arrangements had been made by Mrs. H. T. Goodland.

SATIN-GLO WEEK TO BE OBSERVED

Provincial Dealers Will Feature Products of Satin-Glo From April 2 to 10

The manufacturers of Satin-Glo have announced the week of April 2 to 10 will be observed by the hundreds of Satin-Glo dealers, throughout British Columbia, as Satin-Glo week. During this period, Satin-Glo enamel, Satin-Glo varnish and the semi-gloss Satin-Glo finish will be featured.

"It was during the war years that we first conceived the idea of inducing people to brighten their homes in lively enamel colors," says J. C. Penderay, of the British America Paint Co. Ltd. "The response far surpassed our expectations, and throughout the succeeding years, women have become more adept in the use of color in the home than even paint manufacturers themselves could foresee."

"In order to keep pace with the modern trend in interior decoration, new colors are constantly being called for, and this Spring we have added a number of particularly pleasing shades to our Satin-Glo selection."

Noted Ministers To Visit Victoria In October Next

Prominent clergymen from the United States and England will visit Victoria during the week of October 10 to 15 in connection with the local celebration of the Dwight L. Moody Centenary. It was announced by a committee of ministers after a meeting with Rev. Chauncey B. Nordland, representative of the Moody Bible Institute in Chicago.

The team of speakers who will visit Victoria will visit leading cities in Western Canada and Coast cities in the United States, under the auspices of the Moody Bible Institute, which is taking the lead in the celebration of the hundredth anniversary of the great evangelist.

How You May Get Rid of Those Painful Boils

BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS

When boils start to break out it is an evidence the blood is clogged up with impurities and requires to be thoroughly purified by a good blood medicine.

We believe there is no better blood cleansing medicine than Burdock Blood Bitters. It helps to remove the foul matter from the blood, and once the blood is purified the boils disappear and your misery at an end. Try it!

An executive committee under the leadership of Rev. Dr. A. S. Innie will be in charge of arrangements for the local meetings which will be of interest to the public. Successful and well-attended meetings of the same nature have been held in Toronto, Hamilton, Philadelphia, Chicago and other Eastern cities. A great deal of interest has been manifested locally in the coming of these Christian leaders to Victoria.

Kipling Society Discusses Early Work of Author

"The Children of the Zodiac," a story written by Rudyard Kipling, was read by Mrs. V. S. McLachlan and discussed by members of the Victoria Kipling Society, Tuesday evening.

To the casual reader of the author, who thinks of his stories as records of Indian life and soldiers, this tale, written while Kipling was still a young man, comes as a surprise. His vivid imagination has pictured the mythical inhabitants of the starry world walking the earth in human shape, and teaching, and being taught, by the people they meet. In addition to the reading, the vice-president, P. R. Leighton, gave some extracts from Kipling's recently published autobiography, "Something of Myself."

The story selected for study at the next meeting is "The Eye of Allah," from "Debts and Credits."

B.C. CAMPAIGN NOW STARTING

Major Parties Are Active in Preparation for Approach To Polls

Without any announcement yet as to the date of the anticipated general Provincial election, campaigning appeared to be under way yesterday by all major groups in the province. Half of the Provincial Cabinet was out of town during the day, at destinations as widely separated as Nanaimo and the Okanagan.

Conservatives have called a meeting of the British Columbia executive of the party in Vancouver for Saturday, at which some pronouncement of a major nature is expected to be made by Dr. Frank Patterson, Conservative leader in British Columbia.

TO NOMINATE

City Conservatives held a meeting of their organization and finance committees this week, with plans to report to the central city executive of the party on Wednesday next as to a nominating convention to be held later in Victoria.

Rev. Robert Council, leader of the official Opposition, returned from Ganges, where he spoke to Social Constructives, and announced his itinerary for a Southern Interior tour to start soon. It will be as follows: Salmon Arm, April 12; Sicamous, April 13; Kelowna, April 14; Summerland, April 15; Penticton, April 16; Osoyoos and Oliver, April 17; Grand Forks, April 19 and 20; Rossland-Trail, April 21 and 22; and Nelson, April 23. For part of the route, he will be accompanied by R. W. Bruhn, M.P.P.

R. E. G. DAVIS TO VISIT VICTORIA

Secretary of National Council of Y.M.C.A. Will Arrive Here Next Week

Announcement that R. E. G. Davis, personnel secretary of the National Council of the Y.M.C.A., would arrive in the city next week, was made at the board of directors meeting of the association Tuesday evening.

Mr. Davis will be in Victoria on Thursday and Friday, April 8 and 9. On Thursday noon he will be the guest speaker at the Rotary Club, and in the evening will address the National Youth Council in the Y.M.C.A. A special luncheon meeting of the board of directors will be held Friday noon, when Mr. Davis will be the guest of honor.

FREE MEMBERSHIPS

All ministers of the city will receive free memberships in the Y.M.C.A. for the ensuing year, the directors decided.

J. O. Cameron submitted the financial statement, while the report of the recent financial campaign was given by Frank Paulding. In connection with the campaign, the work of J. O. Cameron, chairman, and F. E. Winslow, chairman of the special committee, was highly commended by the board.

A decrease in membership at classes was noted in the physical report, presented by E. Harrison, but with finer weather apparent, the boys are again turning out in numbers for the classes. S. J. D. Clack gave an account of the boys work committee and the activities of the house committee were reviewed by J. E. Bennett. Dr. Alton Peeble's social and education committee reported, and the Camera Club told of its activities.

U.S. Senator Is In Jocular Mood

WASHINGTON, March 31 (AP).—Senator Hamilton Lewis (D., Ill.), proposed today that France and Britain pay part of their debt to the United States by ceding two French islands in the Atlantic Ocean and an adjoining strip of Canada to this country. He did not specify which part of Canada he had in mind.

A teacher asked her class in spelling to state the difference between the words "result" and "consequence."

A bright girl replied: "Results are what you expect and consequences are what you get."

Had Agonizing Pains in Her Back

Free From Pain Since Taking Kruschen

Like many other sufferers from backache and rheumatic ailments, this woman decided to try Kruschen Salts in a last attempt to obtain relief from pain. To her surprise, the pains did grow less, and in a few months the backache had disappeared. Having made sure of the results, she now writes as follows:

"For about four months I had agonizing pains in my back, and could not turn in bed. During that time I tried various remedies, but obtained no relief, and was seriously considering going into hospital. However, seeing a case similar to mine described in an advertisement for Kruschen, I thought: I would try it, and was more than surprised to find the pain getting less. I have been taking Kruschen for four months, and would not be without it for anything. I must say I am free from those dreadful pains." (Mrs. B. C. Kruschen is an excellent diuretic—that is, it helps to stimulate kidney functions. When kidneys are restored to healthy, normal action, poisonous waste is properly eliminated, the blood stream is purified, and you get welcome relief from the dragging pains of backache. (Adv.)

Little Stories for Bedtime

Longlegs and Whitetail Quarrel

By THORNTON W. BURGESS

"You did!" "I didn't! I didn't!" "You did!"

Such a terrible fuss when Grandfather hid!

You see, Longlegs the Blue Heron had patiently stood on one foot all the long morning waiting for Grandfather Frog to go to sleep on his big green lily-pod. He had meant to have Grandfather for his breakfast and lunch, for he had had no breakfast, and it was now lunch time. He was so hungry that it seemed to him that the sides of his stomach certainly would fall in because there was nothing to hold them up. But Longlegs had patience, a very great deal of patience, and so he had stood, and stood, and stood, and stood, all the time on one foot.

Then without any warning at all old Whitetail, the Marsh Hawk, had glided out across the Smiling Pool with his great claws stretched out to clutch Grandfather Frog. With a slap of his tail on the water Jerry Muskrat had warned Grandfather Frog, who had dived into the Smiling Pool with a great splash just in the very nick of time.

Now, is there anything in the world so hard on the temper as to lose a good meal when you are very, very hungry? Of course, Longlegs didn't really have that good meal, but he had thought that he was surely going to have it. So when Grandfather Frog splashed into the Smiling Pool, of course Longlegs lost his temper altogether. His yellow eyes seemed to grow even more yellow.

"You robber! You thief!" he screamed harshly at old Whitetail. Now old Whitetail was just as hungry as Longlegs, and he had come even nearer to catching Grandfather Frog. He is even quicker tempered than Longlegs. He had whirled like a flash on Jerry Muskrat, but Jerry had just laughed in the most provoking manner and ducked under water. This had made old Whitetail angrier than ever, and then to be called bad names—robber and thief! It was more than the self-respecting Hawk could stand. Yes, sir, it certainly was! He fairly shook with rage as he turned in the air once more and made straight for Longlegs, the Blue Heron.

"I'm no more robber and thief than you are!" he shrieked. "You frightened away my frog!" screamed Longlegs.

"I didn't!" "You did!" "I didn't! It wasn't your frog, it was mine!"

"Chugrun!" said Grandfather Frog to Jerry Muskrat as they peeped out from under some lily-pads. "I didn't know that I belonged to anybody. I really didn't. Did you?"

"You robber! You thief!" he screamed.

"No," replied Jerry, his eyes sparkling with excitement as he watched Longlegs and Whitetail. "It's news to me."

"You're too lazy to hunt like honest folk!" taunted old Whitetail, as he wheeled around Longlegs, watching for a chance to strike with his great, cruel claws.

"I'm too honest to take the food out of other people's mouths!" retorted Longlegs, dancing around as always to face Whitetail, one of his great broad wings held in front of him like a shield, and his long, strong yellow bill ready to strike.

Every feather on Whitetail's head was standing erect with rage, and he looked very fierce and terrible. At last he saw a chance, or thought he did, and shot down. But all he got was a feather from that great wing which Longlegs kept in front of him, and before he could get away that long yellow bill had struck him twice so that he screamed with pain. So they fought and fought till the ground was covered with feathers and they were too tired to fight any longer. Then slowly and painfully old Whitetail flew away over the Green Meadows, and with torn and ragged wings Longlegs flew heavily down the Laughing Brook toward the Big River, and both were sore and stiff, and still hungry.

"Dear me! Dear me! What a terrible thing and how useless anger is," said Grandfather Frog, as he climbed back on his big green lily-pod in the warm sunshine.

SATIN-GLO WEEK TO BE OBSERVED

Provincial Dealers Will Feature Products of Satin-Glo From April 2 to 10

The manufacturers of Satin-Glo have announced the week of April 2 to 10 will be observed by the hundreds of Satin-Glo dealers, throughout British Columbia, as Satin-Glo sale week. During this period, Satin-Glo enamel, Satin-Glo varnish and the semi-gloss Satin-Glo finish will be featured.

"It was during the war years that we first conceived the idea of inducing people to brighten their homes in lively enamel colors," says J. C. Pender, of the British America Paint Co. Ltd. "The response far surpassed our expectations, and throughout the succeeding years, women have become more adept in the use of color in the home than even paint manufacturers themselves could foresee.

"In order to keep pace with the modern trend in interior decoration, new colors are constantly being called for, and this Spring we have added a number of particularly pleasing shades to our Satin-Glo selection."

Noted Ministers To Visit Victoria In October Next

Prominent clergymen from the United States and England will visit Victoria during the week of October 10 to 13 in connection with the local celebration of the Dwight L. Moody Centenary. It was announced by a committee of ministers after a meeting with Rev. Chauncey B. Nordland, representative of the Moody Bible Institute in Chicago.

The team of speakers who will visit Victoria will visit leading cities in Western Canada and Coast cities in the United States, under the auspices of the Moody Bible Institute, which is taking the lead in the celebration of the hundredth anniversary of the great evangelist.

An executive committee under the leadership of Rev. Dr. A. S. Imrie will be in charge of arrangements for the local meetings which will be of interest to the public. Successful and well-attended meetings of the same nature have been held in Toronto, Hamilton, Philadelphia, Chicago and other Eastern cities. A great deal of interest has been manifested locally in the coming of these Christian leaders to Victoria.

Kipling Society Discusses Early Work of Author

"The Children of the Zodiac," a story written by Rudyard Kipling, was read by Mrs. V. S. McLachlan and discussed by members of the Victoria Kipling Society, Tuesday evening.

To the casual reader of the author, who thinks of his stories as records of Indian life and soldiers, this tale, written while Kipling was still a young man, comes as a surprise. His vivid imagination has pictured the mythical inhabitants of the starry world walking the earth in human shape, and teaching, and being taught, by the people they meet. In addition to the reading, the vice-president, P. R. Leighton, gave some extracts from Kipling's recently published autobiography, "Something of Myself."

The story selected for study at the next meeting is "The Eye of Allah," from "Debts and Credits."

B.C. CAMPAIGN NOW STARTING

Major Parties Are Active in Preparation for Approach To Polls

Without any announcement yet as to the date of the anticipated general Provincial election, campaigning appeared to be under way yesterday by all major groups in the province. Half of the Provincial Cabinet was out of town during the day, at destinations as widely separated as Nanaimo and the Okanagan.

Conservatives have called a meeting of the British Columbia executive of the party in Vancouver for Saturday, at which some pronouncement of a major nature is expected to be made by Dr. Frank Patterson, Conservative leader in British Columbia.

TO NOMINATE
City Conservatives held a meeting of their organization and finance committees this week, with plans to report to the central city executive of the party on Wednesday next as to a nominating convention to be held later in Victoria. R. D. Harvey announced.

Rev. Robert Connell, leader of the official Opposition, returned from Ganges, where he spoke to Social Constructives, and announced his itinerary for a Southern Interior tour to start soon. It will be as follows: Salmon Arm, April 12; Sicamous, April 13; Kelowna, April 14; Summerland, April 15; Penticton, April 16; Osoyoos and Oliver, April 17; Grand Forks, April 19 and 20; Rosland-Trail, April 21 and 22; and Nelson, April 23. For part of the route, he will be accompanied by R. W. Bruhn, M.P.P.

R. E. G. DAVIS TO VISIT VICTORIA

Secretary of National Council of Y.M.C.A. Will Arrive Here Next Week

Announcement that R. E. G. Davis, personnel secretary of the National Council of the Y.M.C.A., would arrive in the city next week, was made at the board of directors meeting of the association Tuesday evening.

Mr. Davis will be in Victoria on Thursday and Friday, April 8 and 9. On Thursday noon he will be the guest speaker at the Rotary Club, and in the evening will address the National Youth Council in the Y.M.C.A. A special luncheon meeting of the board of directors will be held Friday noon, when Mr. Davis will be the guest of honor.

FREE MEMBERSHIPS
All ministers of the city will receive free memberships in the Y.M.C.A. for the ensuing year, the directors decided.

J. O. Cameron submitted the financial statement, while the report of the recent financial campaign was given by Frank Paulding. In connection with the campaign, the work of J. O. Cameron, chairman, and F. E. Winslow, chairman of the special committee, was highly commended by the board.

A decrease in membership at classes was noted in the physical report, presented by E. Harrison, but with finer weather apparent, the boys are again turning out in numbers for the classes. S. J. D. Clark gave an account of the boys' work committee and the activities of the house committee were reviewed by J. E. Bennett. Dr. Alton Peeble's social and education committee reported, and the Camera Club told of its activities.

U.S. Senator Is In Jocular Mood

WASHINGTON, March 31 (AP).—Senator Hamilton Lewis (D., Ill.), proposed today that France and Britain pay part of their debt to the United States by ceding two French islands in the Atlantic Ocean and an adjoining strip of Canada to this country. He did not specify which part of Canada he had in mind.

A teacher asked her class in spelling to state the difference between the words "result" and "consequence."

A bright girl replied: "Results are what you expect and consequences are what you get."

Spencers and Bays Gain Victories in Wednesday Football

Store Elevens Score Triumphs Over Garrison and James Bay Wanderers, Respectively—Will Play Off for Pendray Cup Next Week at Park

Joint occupants of the top berth in the Pendray Cup race and their schedule of fixtures completed, Spencer's, present holders of the trophy, and the Hudson's Bay, will meet next Wednesday afternoon in a sudden-death fixture to decide the 1936-37 champions of the Wednesday Football League.

Playing yesterday afternoon at the Royal Athletic Park, the clubs chalked up victories in their final matches. Bays blanked the James Bay Wanderers, 3-0, in the final half of the double attraction, while in the curtain-raiser Spencer's eked out a 2-1 triumph over the Garrison.

Taking advantage of the strong wind at their backs, Spencer's forced the play in the final forty-five minutes and had the Garrison fighting hard on the defence in an attempt to avoid defeat. Only occasionally did the Wood Point lads appear dangerous in this session and their efforts to score were soon repulsed by a steady store back division.

COOK OPENS SCORE

After both goals were scored several times, Jack Cook, manager of the Garrison and who was making his first appearance on the field for a long time, scored the opening goal. Twenty minutes had gone when Cook took a pass from Jimmy Worswick and picked the right-hand corner with a rising shot. Spencer's fought back determinedly and evened the score when a foul was whistled against one of the Garrison players for hands on the penalty line. It was the closest thing to a spot kick any team could wish for. Eric Moir, centre-half, made the shot good with a fast drive to the top of the net.

After the goalie had made a fine save from Collip's header, he rose to the occasion a few minutes later when he pulled off a spectacular stop by throwing himself at a shot going away from him, which came from the toe of Dal Munro. The half came with the score still deadlocked.

The second half, outside of a few Garrison rushes, which seldom got past the penalty line, was all Spencer's, as they had the wind at their backs. The Garrison goal had several close calls before the deciding goal was registered. Bobby Brown nearly broke the tie with a long crossfield drive which the goalie misjudged. Evans raced back and cleared the ball before it crossed the line. Then Les Bradley smashed in a hard drive from Brown's corner before Dal Munro took Art Chapman's pass to score the winning marker.

Dave McMillan refereed and the teams follow:

Garrison—Coldwell; Evans and Watt; Thompson, Wallace and Pocock; McAllister, Worswick, Cook, Edwards and Thornburn.

Spencer's—Stewartson; Clarke and Cann; L. Bradley, Moir and D. Bradley; Brown, Munro, Chapman, Collins and Speller.

BAYS BLANK WANDERERS
Making more of their scoring opportunities, Bays chalked up a 3-0 win over the Wanderers in the final half of the double bill. Bob Preston garbed the Bays' only marker in their initial stanza when he banged the ball home from a penalty kick in the first three minutes of play. James Bay Wanderers fought back and Charlie Richards tested Renfrew with a terrific drive which the Hudson's Bay goalie was forced to push behind the posts for a corner. With the wind at their backs the James Bay boys kept up the pressure, but just could not net the equalizer.

Bays finally broke up the attack and raced down the field and Charlie Sadler picked off Fogden's header after Jim Oakman had crossed from the left lane. Bob Preston, veteran forward, tried to work his way through to the Wanderers' goal but the few shots he fired went astray. Near the end of the half Renfrew punched clear a dangerous header from Les Gelling.

HAVE WIDE MARGIN

Hudson's Bay had a wide margin in the play in the last session and drove home two markers without a return. Bob Preston made it 2-0 after Fogden missed a set-up, and just before the whistle Don Fish netted the third and final goal of the game.

Wanderers staged a belated rally and while dangerous a few times could not penetrate the Hudson's Bay goal.

Shrimpton refereed and the teams were:

Hudson's Bay—Renfrew, O'Connell, Wyatt, Williamson, Kennedy, Ferguson, Fish, McBride, Fogden, Preston and Oakman. Substitute: McLeilan.

James Bay Wanderers—C. Sadler, Knapp, W. White, Geoghegan, D. White, W. Sadler, W. Gelling, Coates, L. Gelling, Richards, Ball and Fraser.

Colloom, former president of the association, disclosed last night he had been "advised that it is felt by many leading lawn tennis players that the Australian players are deeply concerned by the choice of Forest Hills for the matches."

"Cliff Sproule, Jack Crawford and Vivian McGrath are unanimous," he said, "in condemning Forest Hills."

Keist and Kennedy in Headline Mix Tonight

Victoria Boxer Will Swap Punches With Mainlander in Ten-Round Bout at the Tillicum Gymnasium—Good Supporting Card

Making his fourth start since hitting the comeback trail, Tim Keist, Victoria fighter, will climb over the ropes this evening, at the Tillicum Gymnasium, to battle Truman Kennedy, Vancouver brawler, in the ten-round main event of an attractive boxing card being presented by the Tillicum Athletic Club. Three four-rounders and a six-round semi-windup melee will complete the programme. The first mix is scheduled to start at 8:30 o'clock.

Tonight's bout will be the acid test for Keist. With two wins and a draw in his last three starts, the local leather topper can do himself a lot of good by taking the shift, straight-punching Kennedy into camp. With more battles under his belt and a number of scraps in better company, the Mainlander figures to take tonight's top fracas. Keist, however, will be in there battling all of the way, in the hopes of winning the call and getting further headline bouts.

TROLL MEETS KAISER

Shifty Julius Troll, Vancouver fighter, and hard-hitting Joe "Kid" Kaiser, Victoria, will mix in the six-round semi-windup melee. Troll is a smart boy and will have an edge on Kaiser in experience, but the hitting power of the local pugilist is expected to bring him through to victory.

Fred Pocock, soldier fighter from Work Point Barracks, will swap punches with Eddie Smith, Van-

Buxton Will Be Out of Action For Full Month

SEATTLE, March 31 (P).—Promoter Nate Drumman said tonight Bill Buxton, Victoria, featherweight boxer, injured his left hand last night in his fight with Speedy Dado. Drumman said Buxton would be unable to fight for at least a month.

Other Team

It was interesting on Saturday to talk to a one-time player of good-class soccer, one who has neither played nor watched for a matter of over thirty years. He was astounded by the use of the head in today's play—I mean the head, not the brain. He questioned whether the modern player does not make too much use of the head, and to a certain extent he is correct, for many a time it were better to get control of a wild ball by trapping it and keeping it lower.

Another criticism he has to offer, and that is that the modern half back plays too much of a defensive game, leaving all the brunt of the attack to the forwards. On the other hand he thinks that the forwards are apt to ignore the game altogether when the opponents are taking a corner kick. Most of these changes in tactics have been brought about by the greatly accelerated pace of the game, due in large measure to the present offside ruling.

It is always a debatable point whether soccer is played better today than in our time, and the conclusion generally reached is that it is today a different game, perhaps a more attractive game to watch, still the best of all games to play, but not better and no worse than in days of old. Old-timers like to sneer and jeer at today's players, but then when we were playing we in our day were razzed by the fans who were still older-timers, and so it will ever be!

ROBERT RIGGS REGISTERS WIN

Los Angeles Tennis Player Defeats Malon Courts in Atlanta Tournament

ATLANTA, March 31 (P).—Robert Riggs, Los Angeles, the nation's number four ranking tennis player and national clay courts champion, defeated Malon Courts, Atlanta, 7-5, 6-4, in a delayed second round match today in the Atlanta invitational tennis tournament.

Wayne Sabin, Hollywood, number seventeen ranking player, defeated Red Enlow, Atlanta, in another delayed second round match, 6-2, 4-6, 6-0.

The matches were postponed yesterday because of darkness.

By defeating Courts, Riggs advanced, a round nearer meeting Bryan M. (Bity) Grant, Atlanta, in the final round of singles. Grant is seeded number one and Riggs number two.

In a first round doubles match, Burt Boulware, Jacksonville, Fla., and Bill Moore, Hartford, Ark., defeated Molly Williamson, Atlanta, and Preston Chambers, Atlanta, 6-3, 3-6, 9-7.

Seattle Indians to Meet Sacramento in Opening Game

LOS ANGELES, March 31 (P).—W. C. Tuttle, president of the Pacific Coast Baseball League, came forth today with a prediction that the 1937 campaign would be the most successful in the past five years.

Tuttle, genial, bald-pated writer of Western fiction, now entering his second year at the helm of Coast baseball, said he looked for an overflow turnout for opening games of the schedule Saturday.

Here are the opening day battles: San Diego at Los Angeles. Missions at San Francisco. Portland at Oakland. Seattle at Sacramento.

MONTREALERS WILL TACKLE PATRICK'S CREW THIS EVENING

Tommy Gorman's Rugged Squad and New York Stickhandlers Will Clash in Semi-Final Round of Stanley Cup Series—Teams in Good Shape—Crowd of 16,000 Expected

NEW YORK, March 31 (P).—As Montreal Maroons and New York Rangers pit hockey skill and brawn against each other here tomorrow night in the first game of the Stanley Cup semi-final series, there will be a bit of drama of which the sell-out crowd of more than 16,000 persons will be unaware.

Alex Shibicky, sharpshooting young wingman wearing Broadway blue, will be seeking further vindication of charges heaped around the National Hockey League earlier in the season. Rangers' brain-trust was aware at the time that Shibicky was worried, but did not know the reason for it. While they were holding a daily conference, however, Shibicky burst in on Manager Lester Patrick, Captain Bill Cook and Centreman Frankie Boucher and blurted out: "So they're saying I can't take it, eh? Well, I'll show them."

He was gone before words of encouragement could be offered. His play became more aggressive, but his scoring fell off. He finished the regular season with fourteen goals and eight assists, sixth among Ranger marksmen.

SHIBICKY STARS

Patrick, Cook, Boucher and other oldsters kept advising the Winnipeg youngster, but it was not until the bluishirts had knocked Toronto Maple Leafs out of the cup derby that Shibicky intimated he thought he had proved his metal and stood cleared of what Patrick branded "isolated chafe."

Shibicky scored a goal in the Leaf series, and though suffering from a bad charley-horse after being checked by Red Horner of Leafs in the first game, remained in action until the closing minutes of the contest.

He has been getting daily treatments for the injury, and will be in top shape for the Maroon opener, as will Ching Johnson, veteran rearguard and bouncer extraordinary. Neil Colville, kid-line pivot, who suffered a broken jaw in the Leaf jousts, was much improved today, but will wear a special protector over his face.

Tomorrow night's game will be the last at the Garden this season unless Rangers can defeat Maroons two straight. Then a cup final game could be squeezed into the Garden next Tuesday before a circus takes over the building on April 8.

MAROONS LEAVE

MONTREAL, March 31 (P).—Brimful of his never-falling confidence, Tommy Gorman took his Montreal Maroons to New York tonight for the opening of the best-of-three Stanley Cup semi-finals, convinced the team has the power to "overpower" the Men of Patrick.

"We won't make the same mistake Toronto made in underestimating the Rangers," Gorman said. "They are a smart, crafty team, with many smart money players. But I'm sure Maroons can take them."

Winner of the Ranger-Maroon series will meet either Detroit Red Wings or Montreal Canadiens in the cup finals, and Gorman would like to see Canadiens there against the Maroons.

"They would be easier to take, and think of the gates an intra-city final would draw."

WINGS ON SPOT

MONTREAL, March 31 (P).—Montreal's Canadiens, speeding

along hockey's comeback trail, found just one more hill ahead to-night in their path to the Stanley Cup finals.

As the semi-final series with Detroit Red Wings stood deadlocked at two games apiece, only a single match lay between Canadiens and a new bit of hockey history; for if they win tomorrow night, they will become the first team ever to reach the final after dropping two straight in the last round but one.

The champion Red Wings were definitely underdogs tonight. Besides the psychological hazard of two lost games, they were still without their all-star goalie, Norm Smith, out with an injured arm. Rookie Earl Robertson, who lost a 3-1 verdict to Hablitar last night, was certain to be in the netting tomorrow.

Cecil Hart had no worries as to his Canadiens' fitness.

Writ to Be Taken Out by Basketball League Here Today

Efforts Will Be Made to Halt Playing of Provincial Senior "B" Final—Seeking Square Deal for Hoyle-Brown, Local Champions

President Jack Taylor, of the Victoria and District Basketball League, announced here today that the local organization will take out a writ this morning against the British Columbia Association to halt the playing of the provincial senior "B" final between Vancouver Spencers and the Interior champions.

This announcement came following a telegram sent to Gordie Woolridge, vice-president, from Ken Walton, secretary of the provincial body. The telegram read as follows: "Unanimous opinion local executive members that should play-off be arranged between Hoyle-Brown and Spencers, that as whole mix-up entirely Island affair, and seeing Spencers have already financed one game, that Island Association of Hoyle-Brown should assume entire expense of any further play-off."

The senior "B" play-offs were going nicely until the president of the Vancouver Island Association tossed out Hoyle-Brown, local champions, and declared Port Alberni to be Island winners, and ordered them to play Spencers in the Coast final on the Mainland. The Up-Islanders went to work, traveled to Vancouver, played the game, and lost to Spencers. Then the British Columbia Association, at its meeting Good Friday in Victoria, upheld the protest of the Victoria officials, reversed the decision of the Island president, and ordered Hoyle-Brown to play Spencers in the final.

FIGHT TO FINISH
However, after upholding the Victoria protest, the provincial association comes out with a statement that it refuses to withstand the expense of staging the game between the local champions and Spencers. We will fight this matter to a finish and will get a square deal when it is cleared up," stated Taylor yesterday.

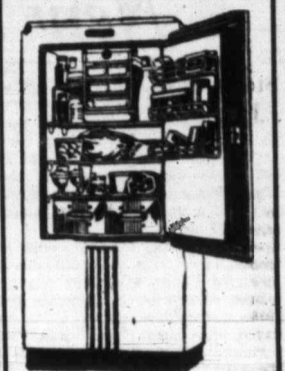

The local president stated that Victoria officials had consulted a lawyer after receiving the telegram and were told to take out a writ to stop any attempt to play the British Columbia final, either on the Coast or in the Interior.

ALISON SKIPWORTH IN FILM AT OAK BAY

"Hitch Hike Lady" Boasts a Distinguished Cast of Outstanding Comedians

With a distinguished cast of outstanding comedians and starring Alison Skipworth, "Hitch Hike Lady" comes to the Oak Bay Theatre today.

The new Republic photoplay, one of the most uproarious comedies, is the story of an aged English housekeeper who starts a trans-continental hitch-hiking excursion to join her son in California. En route she encounters a confidence man, a gangster, a young trailer salesman, and a young dress designer.

Members of the party learn the elderly woman's son is actually an inmate of San Quentin Prison, and their efforts to keep the old lady in ignorance provide the basis for the hilarious plot.

GEORGE O'BRIEN IN LOGGER ROLE

Outdoor Hero Comes to Screen of Plaza Theatre in "Park Avenue Logger"

George O'Brien, popular outdoor star, is currently seen on the screen as a hard-hitting, battling son of a wealthy lumber magnate who forsakes the society world to join a rough crew of hardy lumberjacks in the big tree country. The action-vehicle is "Park Avenue Logger," a George A. Hirliman production for R.K.O. Radio, which comes to the Plaza Theatre today.

The story is said to reveal how O'Brien, by posing as an intellectual highbrow, tricks his disgusted father into sending him to a logging camp where O'Brien welcomes the opportunity to gratify his secret passion for battling.

David Howard directed "Park Avenue Logger" and the supporting cast includes Beatrice Roberts, Bert Hanlon, Gertrude Short, Willard Robertson, Ward Bond and Robert E. O'Connor.

BUCK JONES IS COLUMBIA STAR

"The Cowboy and the Kid" Features Popular Western Actor With Dorothy Revier

"The Cowboy and the Kid," starring Buck Jones at the Columbia Theatre, is loaded with laughs. The picture opens with Buck telling his cowboys, "Remember, no rough stuff." Then he goes into a Chinese laundry for his wash. He can't find his ticket and brushes aside the laundryman to read the secret signs himself. After he manages to wreck the place, the sheriff finds him a ticket. This one is in English, ordering Buck to appear in court. He gets the ticket, but no shirt.

Dorothy Revier and Billy Burrud head the supporting cast.

ARION CLUB TO GIVE CONCERT ON APRIL 21

The one hundred and thirteenth concert of the Arion male voice choir is to be held at the Empress ballroom on the evening of Wednesday, April 21. This concert will bring to a close the forty-fifth season of the veteran organization, the only choir in the city which has maintained an uninterrupted existence in the musical life and advancement of Victoria, for nearly half a century.

One of the numbers to be given is that wonderfully descriptive composition, "The Desert," by Felicien David, which will be accompanied by an orchestra of twenty well-known players, and in which Mrs. Reese Burns will be the narrator.

Mrs. W. H. Wilson will be heard in solos and will also take the soprano solo in one of the club numbers.

AMUSEMENTS

MYSTERY SEQUEL AT ATLAS TODAY

William Powell and Myrna Loy Are Co-Starring in "After the Thin Man"

With all the entertaining points of its predecessor, and a number of new ones, Dashiell Hammett's mystery story, "After the Thin Man," opens today at the Atlas Theatre, starring William Powell and Myrna Loy. This is a sequel to "The Thin Man" which Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studios produced in response to public demand.

The same director, W. S. Van Dyke, was responsible. Hunt Stromberg produced the film in which the sequel picks up in high where the original opus left off.

CAPITOL Ultra-smart comedy in theatre which three of Hollywood's top-flight stars participate, is the attractive fare at the Capitol Theatre, where Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's "The Last of Mrs. Cheyney" shows for the last time today, with Joan Crawford, William Powell and Robert Montgomery.

DOMINION Victor McLaglen and Ida Lupino in R.K.A. Radio's "Sea Devils," have five fights with one another in the film, yet strangely enough, Foster twice saves McLaglen's life in the stirring tale of the activities of the members of the coast guard service. This picture is showing at the Dominion Theatre for the last times today.

NEW YORK, March 31 (P).—Stocks worked at cross-purposes in today's market and trends were highly divergent at the close.

The Associated Press average of 90 stocks was unchanged at 124. It showed a net gain on the month of 2.2 of a point. Transfers totaled 1,662,770 shares.

Stock dealings for the month in which more than 50,000,000 shares changed hands were only slightly ahead of February's aggregate but were under March, 1936.

On the upside were American Smelting at 96, Kennecott 65 5/8, Case 158, Deere 128 1/4, and Western Union 71 7/8.

Prominent losers included U.S. Steel at 121 5/8, Bethlehem 99, Westinghouse 143 1/2, General Motors 62 3/4, Chrysler 124 1/8, N.Y. Central 31 3/4, Southern Pacific 61 1/4, and Goodyear 45.

U.S. Government bonds topped, many to new 1937 lows, as other sections of the market veered moderately.

Setbacks in Federales ranged to 7-8 of a point and 22 United States Governments made new lows for the year. Most domestic corporate bonds moved in undistinguished fashion.

Some indication of the extent of bond trading activity recently seen in total figures for March showing turnover of $422,749,000, face amount, against $285,459,000 in February and $284,692,000 in March, 1936.

WHEAT FUTURES

WINNIPEG, March 31 (P).—Unexpected weakness at Buenos Aires induced profit-taking during a nervous session in the Winnipeg Grain Exchange today.

At the close wheat prices were 21-2 to 17-8 cents lower with May at $1.45 1/2, July $1.42 and October $1.27 1/2.

Much of the selling involved in the day's active session was inter-market spreading operations with Chicago, where markets were erratic.

Good resting orders were encountered as prices fell back.

Although there were reports of a little export buying, it did not appear to be a bullish factor. Estimate of Canadian wheat export overnight was placed at 250,000 bushels.

The major bearishness came from disappointment in the action of Buenos Aires wheat prices which were 1-2 to 7-8 cents lower at noon.

Stronger despite lack of importers' demand and closing quotations were 2-3 to 1-1/2 higher.

Trade in cash wheat was slow. Fair support was encountered in the coarse grains sections.

WINNIPEG TOO POOR

TO HELP CELEBRATE

WINNIPEG, March 31 (P).—Some fear was expressed here about Winnipeg's celebration of the Coronation, May 12, when Alderman C. Rhodes Smith revealed the city lacked sufficient funds to assist the committee to form specific plans.

The city allowed $1,700 for the 1911 coronation of George V, but the council could not allow that amount this year, the alderman said.

THE TUTTS... By Crawford Young

Jane Dixon Says:

A VERY SENSIBLE YOUNG WOMAN IS IN A QUANDARY ABOUT A YOUNG MAN, WHO SAYS SHE DOES NOT LOVE HIM BECAUSE SHE IS NOT WILLING TO RUSH INTO MARRIAGE

Today's young woman is in a quandary about a young man who insists on rushing into marriage.

She cares deeply for him, but they have known one another for such a short time that she feels they should wait a while longer and find if what they believe to be love really is a lasting affection, a sound comradeship that will endure beyond the waning of a sudden honeymoon.

"I've known him considerably less than a year," she writes. "A few weeks after we met he wanted me to marry him. I tried to explain that I cared for him a great deal, but that it was foolish for us to be so hasty in making a decision that should last for life."

"There were other considerations. I should like to be a credit to him, to look my best, to have a wardrobe that would meet the occasions bound to occur in his business. Nothing elaborate, but the nice things every woman, especially when she is a bride, likes to wear for the man she loves."

Does this sound fair to you? It sounds eminently fair to me.

What about the young man?

Was he delighted that he had found a young woman who wanted to be a working partner rather than a predatory appendage?

Was he properly grateful for his good fortune?

He was not. He went into a pout.

"I can't make him believe that what I strive for is a lasting happiness," the young woman writes. "I want it for him as well as for myself. He says that the way I've acted proves to him that I don't care. Do you think if he really loves me, he would doubt me as he does?"

The young woman explains something of her efforts to convince the man she does care, that she cares so much she can not do other than proceed with caution instead of stepping off the deep end and leaving the swim to chance.

"Do you think I should forget him," she asks, "or should I go on trying to make him understand how I feel? I've met his family. I like them a lot. I think they like me. But the two of us know each other so little."—She signs herself "Truly."

Answer: You are a sound and a sincere person, Truly.

I'm afraid the young man is thinking more about himself, and what he wants, than he is about you and your happiness.

Obviously he lacks the good sense to realize his fortune in meeting a girl who does not swallow him hook, line and sinker. The "yes" girls come sixteen to the dozen, but the ones who take or try to take some sensible insurance on the future are at a premium.

In my opinion, the young man knows you care for him, but he wants his own way. He is challenging you to prove your affection by pushing aside your judgment and, what is more, your honesty.

If he is so self-willed that your wishes, your hopes, your ambitions are secondary to his desire, he is not the man for you.

Why not be quite frank with him? Explain to him what you have confided to me—that you want to have time to prepare yourself for the job the two of you are facing.

His failure to understand would mean that he is not the man with whom an orderly, ambitious and sincere woman, like yourself, could find happiness.

As you feel, marriage is not an adventure. It is a life contract, and should be entered into with the most exact contracting partner has to give.

How It Started

By JEAN NEWTON

SPILLING SALT—WHY IS IT BAD LUCK

Deep-rooted in the common superstition that spilling salt forebodes misfortune.

Its firm hold on many people is undoubtedly because of its religious significance attaching to its connection with the Last Supper.

In Leonardo Da Vinci's painting of the Last Supper, we see Judas overturning the salt-cellar by reaching across the table to dip his hand into the dish with Christ.

The special significance of salt, however, goes back far beyond the Last Supper, because of the universal belief in it as a symbol of uprightness—arising possibly from recognition of its indispensability as an item in the diet—it has since earliest times entered into the religious rites of the Hebrews.

By the Greeks and Romans, spilling salt at table was considered a profanation.

The Arabs eat bread and salt together, as an evidence of friendship.

The regard it as a deliberate affront to offer one bread without salt—or to purposely spill his salt.

Blackheads simply dissolve and disappear by this one simple, safe and sure method. Get two ounces of peroxide powder from any drug store, sprinkle it on a hot, wet cloth, rub the face gently—every blackhead will be gone. Have a Hollywood complexion.

Old Gentleman (lost in Glasgow fog, and hearing footsteps): "Can you tell me where I am going?"
Weary Voice (from the darkness): "In the canal. I've just come out."

STUDYING BLIND CASES IN B.C.

Dominion Pension Plan May Affect 500 Persons at Cost of $120,000

Provincial officials were estimating yesterday the effect of pensions for the blind in British Columbia. So far as could be ascertained at the Provincial Secretary's Department, there are in the neighborhood of 1,000 sightless persons in the Province, though numbers of these would be outside the terms of the Federal pension plan.

As at present considered at Ottawa, the pensions would apply to those who are forty years of age or over, and would be paid to the extent of 75 per cent by the Dominion, and the remaining 25 per cent by the several provinces.

Assuming that even half of the blind in British Columbia were eligible for the pension, the annual cost would be $120,000, of which the province's share would work out at $30,000.

SOME RECORD EXISTS

For the fiscal year ending March 31, 1936, 978 active cases of blindness were on record in British Columbia, distributed between the following age limits: Up to twenty years of age, sixty-three; between twenty and forty-nine years, 261; between fifty and sixty-nine, 336; and seventy or over, 305 cases. In addition, a number of cases formerly on record were assumed to have left the Province.

From this it would appear that somewhere between 500 and 600 cases of blind persons would come within the pension plan in British Columbia, if the Federal plan is implemented. At 600 persons, the $20 monthly pension would amount to $144,000, and the Province's share would be $36,000.

ILLUSTRATED LECTURE

Rev. Dr. W. J. Sippell will give an illustrated lecture on Japan tomorrow evening at Emmanuel Baptist Church hall. Dr. Sippell visited the Orient recently and secured many beautiful pictures, which he has made into colored slides, about seventy-five in all. Among these pictures he will show several depicting religious and general customs of Japan. Others will show some fine scenic views, also.

"Yes," said the London coster, "it was superstitious as made me marry my cousin. It was a toss up which of them to have—Mary or Anna. When I saw a cigar on the ground I picked it up, an' I'm blessed if it didn't say on it 'Havana.' So I took

Luncheon Served

A number of the Household Training committee members and others who have been assisting with the training course by acting as hostesses during the girls' field work, were entertained at luncheon yesterday afternoon in the home economics building at the Victoria West School. Miss Latimer, director, was the hostess and the training class students prepared and served an attractively arranged luncheon, the table centred with a beautiful bowl of erythronium. The Household Training course, which has been in progress under the direction of the Y.W.C.A. and the Provincial Department of Education, will come to a close on April 15.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to go

The liver should pour out two pounds of bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just clogs in the bowels. Gas builds up your stomach. You get constipated. Harshness comes on into the body, and you feel worn, sunk and the world looks bleak.

A more forward movement doesn't always get at the cause. You need something that works on the liver to pull it out. It takes them good, old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get them two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." Harshness and pain, they break the bile down and make the work of the liver easy and natural. No cathartics or enemata in them. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name. It absolutely relieves anything else. 25c.
